

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted in the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

R E P O R T
OF THE COMMITTEE ON DIOCESAN FINANCES.

The Committee has held three meetings during the year.

Under its direction the Treasurer of the Diocese has prepared the schedules of assessments for Diocesan purposes, and of apportionments for Domestic and Foreign Missions, for the Social Service Commission, and for the Board of Religious Education.

With the Archdeacons of the Diocese it has met as the Board of Adjustment and considered requests from forty-six Parishes, Missions and Congregations for the correction or modification of their assessments or apportionments, and made such adjustments as seemed necessary.

The Committee has consulted with the various agencies receiving appropriations from the Convention, and is prepared to submit an annual budget of Diocesan expenditures.

The Treasurer of the Diocese has, in accordance with the Canon, reported to the Secretary of the Convention the names of all Parishes, Missions, or Congregations that for two successive years have failed to pay the Diocesan assessments.

We emphasize very strongly that the canonical dates for the payments of assessments are February 1st and August 1st. A strict adherence to these dates is necessary if all Diocesan obligations are to be met promptly.

The reports from the Board of Missions show that on the apportionment of $266,389, made to the Diocese of New York by the Board of Missions, the receipts to date amount to $190,061.

The Treasurer of the Diocese has received on account of Diocesan assessments, $68,151, leaving a balance still unpaid of $2,849. This amount is owed by twenty-three Parishes, Missions and Congregations who are in arrears for part of their assessments, ten who have paid nothing on account of their assessment, and three who have paid nothing for two years or more.

The appointed members of the Committee beg to record their deep appreciation of the work which the Treasurer has done during the past year.

Respectfully submitted,

STEPHEN BAKER,
SETH LOW,
F. S. BANGS,
FRANCIS C. HUNTINGTON,
GEO. R. VAN DE WATER,
HOWARD C. ROBBINS,
R. M. POTT,

Committee.

New York, November 11, 1914.

The Committee on Diocesan Finances begs to submit the following budget of Diocesan expenditures for the Convention year 1914-15.

THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The amount of the appropriation for last year was Seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) and the Board of Trustees has made application for an appropriation of Twenty-one thousand dollars ($21,000) for the coming year.

After consultation with the Treasurer, the Committee begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Seventeen thousand dollars ($17,000) for the Episcopal Fund for the Convention year 1914-15.

THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The amount of the appropriation last year was Six thousand dollars ($6,000). The Treasurer has made application for an appropriation of Nine thousand dollars ($9,000) for the coming year. The Treasurer states that this increase is made necessary by the fact that on November 1, 1913, there was a balance on hand of $1,427, and on November 1, 1914, the balance was $180; that Canon XXI provides that the Treasurer shall retain annually out of this fund about One thousand dollars ($1,000) so as to meet the assessment for the General Convention; and that in 1912, the Convention passed a resolution authorizing the Treasurer to pay all assessments against the Diocesan House amounting to about Three thousand dollars ($3,000) from this Fund.

The Committee therefore begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Nine thousand dollars ($9,000) for the Diocesan Fund for the Convention year 1914-15.

THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY COMMITTEE.

The amount of the appropriation for last year was $380, and the Committee has made application for an appropriation of $450 for the coming year.

The Committee therefore begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Four hundred and fifty dollars ($450) for the work of the Diocesan Missionary Committee, to be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

The amount of the appropriation for last year was Forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000), and the Committee has made application for an appropriation of Forty-nine thousand, two hundred dollars ($49,200) for the coming year.

The Committee has carefully considered this application and begs to offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Forty-eight thousand dollars ($48,000) for the work of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

The Committee has received a request from the Social Service Commission for an apportionment of Three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) among the Parishes of the Diocese and also a request from the Board of Religious Education for an apportionment of Three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) among the Parishes of the Diocese, to be divided and applied to the General Board of Religious Education and the Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

The Committee begs to suggest that according to Canon XIX, these two resolutions will have to be introduced from the floor of the house and referred to the Committee on Diocesan Finances for report to the Convention.

For the Committee,

STEPHEN BAKER,
Chairman.

New York, November 11, 1914.

Mr. Baker moved the resolutions contained in the Budget and they were severally adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved that the Rules of Order be suspended, which was adopted, and read the following report:

R E P O R T
OF THE COMMITTEE ON DESPATCH OF BUSINESS.

The Committee on Despatch of Business reports that it has received a communication from the Committee on Arrangements, forwarding to it a letter from the Laymen's Efficiency League, in which the Committee on Despatch of Business is asked to recommend to the Convention that one hour be designated on the afternoon of the first day of its session for the presentation of the reports of the New York City Mission Society and the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, and one hour on the morning of the second day of the session of the Convention for the hearing of the reports of the Diocesan Missionary Society and the Church Extension Society.

After careful consideration the Committee finds itself unable to ask the Convention to give unanimous consent to the suspension of Rule No. V, Section 8, inasmuch as valuable and interesting as are the works of these societies, there are other organizations which, in the judgment of the Committee, should be given an equal opportunity to make their work known, namely, the Church Temperance Society, the Social Service Commission and the Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

As for the request that an hour be designated for the hearing of the report of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, the Committee recommends that on the first day of the session the hearing of these reports be made the order of the day at 2.30 P. M., or immediately following the address of the Bishop.

The Committee further suggests that Rule of Order No. V, Section 8, be amended by adding a new sub-section No. (17) [page 451 Journal of the Convention] reading as follows: "On the evening of the first day of the session, beginning with the Convention of 1915, there shall be a public meeting at which an opportunity may be given to the New York City Mission Society, the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, the Board of Religious Education, the Social Service Commission and the Church Temperance Society, to present brief reports to be followed by general discussion."

Bishop Courtney, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented the following report:

To the Convention:

The Committee on Canons respectfully report:

The Convention of 1913 referred to your Committee six proposals for the amendment of the Constitution or the Canons of the Diocese, and also instructed them to correct, revise and harmonize the Canons. To the work thus entrusted to them the Committee have given their best consideration, and they have held a number of protracted meetings.

Important changes which of late years have been made in the Canons made some of the Rules of Order inapplicable. Your Committee, although not specifically instructed, deemed it their duty to recommend to the Convention a revised set of Rules. They have taken advantage of the opportunity thus afforded to express in new Rules what they conceive to be correct parliamentary practice with respect to the despatch of business, which hitherto have not been defined in the Rules except by reference to Cushing's Manual; believing it to be more convenient to state them explicitly than to refer to a book which ordinarily has not been accessible to members of the Convention. In all such matters they have followed the revised Rules of Order of the General Convention.

For the greater convenience of members of the Convention the Committee have printed their report.

Their recommendations upon the several proposals referred to them follow in a schedule.

By order of the Committee,

F. COURTNEY, Chairman.

November 4, 1914.

SCHEDULE.

1. A proposal to limit the right of Missionaries and Curates or Assistant Ministers to vote in Convention to those who receive a salary sufficient for their support from the Parish or Missionary Society of the Diocese (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 58). The Committee have been given to understand that some Clergymen are supposed to sit in the Convention upon titles which are merely nominal and are not connected by any active or bona fide relation to a parish or other institution; and it has been suggested that the proposed amendment under consideration may be designed to reach cases of this sort. Your Committee are of the opinion that the abuse, if it exist, should be dealt with directly by the Convention, and should not be approached in the manner involved in this proposal.

They recommend that the proposal be not adopted.

2. A proposal that the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund and on the Treasurer's Report be discontinued, their duties having been transferred to the Committee on Diocesan Finances. (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 63.)

The Committee have adopted this proposal in the revision of the Canons and Rules of Order which they were directed to make by the Convention of 1913.

3. A proposal to amend Article III of the Constitution by providing a penalty for failure of parishes to make annual reports pursuant to Canons IX and XVIII [XIX] (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 63).

In the opinion of your Committee the object in view can properly be reached by Canon, and they have embodied in the proposed revision which they are about to submit to the Convention appropriate provisions for this purpose.

4. A proposal to amend Article III of the Constitution by limiting the clerical vote on matters of finance to clergymen who are settled in some church in union with the Convention or in the Cathedral (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 63).

If the Convention thought wise to admit only those clergymen who are qualified by a parochial title the object of this proposal would be accomplished, but it is not the policy of the Convention to exclude from its membership the large number of clergymen canonically resident in the Diocese, who are qualified by the other titles enumerated in Article III. In the opinion of your Committee, it would be difficult in practice to divide the House on financial questions into two chambers, one of voters and the other of non-voters. In principle your Committee are unable to recommend the partial disfranchisement of any of the members of the Convention; all, in their opinion, so long as they are members, ought to have equal rights in it.

They recommend that the proposal be not adopted.

5. A proposal so to amend the Canon of Elections as in substance to provide that in voting members declare both their first and their second choice, to the end that if no candidate receive as first choice a majority of votes those ballots on which a candidate is indicated as the second choice of the elector be added to those in which he is indicated as first choice; and the candidate, if any, who upon such combination shall receive a majority of the votes shall be deemed elected (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 180).

Your Committee believe this method of expediting voting preferable to another method, involving an amendment to the Constitution, proposed in the Convention of 1913 and then approved, and about to be considered by this Convention (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 173). That proposal substitutes election by plurality for election by majority; in other words, gives to a minority of the Convention power to fill its offices.

The proposal to reach a majority vote by adding the votes cast in favor of a candidate as second choice to those cast for him as first choice, in cases where no candidate has a majority as first choice, has the merit of convenience; it tends to produce an election in shorter time and with fewer ballottings than the method of voting heretofore employed by the Convention; and it has the further merit of giving effect to the general preference of the Convention instead of subordinating that preference to the control of a minor faction.

For these reasons your Committee have not assumed that the Convention upon further consideration would adopt the amendment proposed to the Constitution in favor of election by plurality of votes and accordingly they have not embodied such a provision in the Canon of Elections; but they recommend the adoption of the other proposal, and in revising that Canon they have made provision for its operation.

In the opinion of your Committee it is desirable to avoid any question of conflict between the Canon as amended and the Constitution, by amending the Constitution so that the proposed method of counting a majority may be clearly sanctioned. They recommend therefore that Article VII of the Constitution be amended by adding at the end a new paragraph as follows:

For all offices except Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop, the Convention may provide by Canon for counting a majority by adding votes cast for a candidate as second choice to the votes cast for him as first choice.

They recommend further that the proposed amendment to the Canon of Elections lie over to the next Convention for further consideration in case the Convention amend the Constitution, and that it take the following form:

Amend the Canon of Elections by inserting in section 1, after the words "necessary to a valid election, provided that," the following:

except in the election of a Bishop, a Bishop Coadjutor or a Suffragan Bishop each ballot shall contain a space in which the voter may indicate his second choice for the position to be filled, and if no candidate indicated as first choice receive a majority of the votes cast, the votes cast for a candidate as second choice shall be added to those cast for him as first choice, and if the combined votes for any candidate as first and second choice constitute a majority of all the votes cast such candidate shall be deemed elected; provided further, that if in

Also strike out the succeeding word if.

6. A proposal to appoint a committee to inquire as to the conditions on which the endowments of parishes and institutions connected with the Diocese are held, and to report to the next Convention whether in their opinion any change in the name of the Church would affect the same (JOURNAL of 1913, p. 194).

Your committee do not perceive any object to be gained of sufficient value to warrant agitation of this subject at the present time, and they recommend that no action be taken upon the proposal.

7. Your Committee were instructed by the Convention of 1913 to correct, revise and harmonize the Canons of this Diocese, and report to the Convention of 1914 (JOURNAL, pp. 58, 173, 177).

They have accordingly prepared, and now submit to the consideration of the Convention, the following revision of the Canons: in which they have endeavored to correct errors or infelicities of expression, to expunge provisions which have become obsolete or needless, and to harmonize provisions relating to the same subject or to similar subjects, as well as those which although they relate to different subjects ought to be expressed in similar form.

[The Revised Canons and Rules of Order appended to this report, with the exception of proposed Canon XXIV, being adopted as presented, will be found in Appendix J.]

CANON XXIV.

Of the Penalty for Refusal to Abide by the Bishop's Judgment in Cases Concerning the Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation.

Whenever either party to a proceeding for a separation, and the dissolution of the pastoral relation, between a Rector or Minister and the parish committed to his charge, shall refuse to abide by the judgment of the Bishop, such party, if the Minister, shall be suspended by the Bishop from the Ministry until he shall comply with it, provided that if such suspension continue more than one year such Minister shall be liable to be deposed from the Ministry; and if such party so refusing to abide by the judgment be the parish, it shall be suspended by the Bishop from union with the Convention until it shall comply with the judgment, and no Clergyman shall officiate in the parish without the Bishop's special license, until the Bishop shall have revoked its suspension.

Mr. Stetson moved that the amendment to Article VII of the Constitution (Calendar, Part I, No. 1), be not adopted, and it was not adopted.

This resolution is not to be considered as establishing a precedent for succeeding Diocesan Conventions.

Which was referred to the Committee on Diocesan Finances.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved that the elections be made the special order for Thursday morning, immediately after the Convention is called to order, and that the polls be open from half past nine to half past ten o'clock.

Theodore Sedgwick, in behalf of the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes, reported that the Parish of the Chapel of the Comforter, New York City, had made application in canonical form for admission into union with the Convention, and by vote of the Convention, the Parish of the Chapel of the Comforter, New York City, was admitted into union with the Convention.

SECOND DAY.

Thursday, November 12, 1914.

Morning Prayer was said in the Cathedral by the Rev. E. Briggs Nash.

The Bishop of the Diocese took the Chair, and on motion of the Rev. Mr. Henshaw the reading of the minutes of the preceding day was postponed until the close of the Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved that the debate upon the resolution concerning Woman Suffrage in Parish meetings be limited to one-half hour, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Cummins moved that the polls be closed at 12.30 noon. Bishop Burch moved to amend by substituting the hour of 11.30 A. M. The amendment was accepted and the motion was adopted.

The order of the day was called for, viz.:

Resolved, That in the judgment of the Convention, women should be admitted and permitted to vote at parish meetings, and that it be referred to a committee of three to be appointed by the Bishop with power to take such action as may be necessary to bring about that result.

Resolved, That the substitute resolution be referred to a committee of five to be appointed by the Bishop to report at the next Convention.

Mr. Dwight Braman offered the following amendment:

Whereas, in 1813 an Act of the Legislature of this State proscribed women from a vote at church meetings, by an Act of the Legislature of this State, Section 1 and 2, not modified until 1867, Chapter 656, amending Section 3 and Section 7 of said Act of 1813, by striking therefrom the word "male" and also Section 7, by striking therefrom the word "he" and inserting the words "such person," this amendment extended to females the right to vote and incorporate in all societies except such as are organized under the first two sections of the Act of 1813, namely, the Episcopal and Reformed Dutch churches; and

Whereas, many of the States have given to women the right to vote when twenty-one years of age and over in such churches and in all societies as organized under the corporate laws of such States, in which States such custom has prevailed with marked benefit to all.

Be it resolved, that it be the sense of this Convention to appoint a Committee of Five to petition the incoming Legislature of the State of New York on behalf of this Diocese that the Religious Corporations Law be amended so as to allow women to vote in parish elections upon the same qualifications which men are entitled to vote.

The amendment was accepted by the Committee and the resolution as amended was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks called for the order of the day, the report of the Committee on Work Among Foreign-born Peoples, and moved that twenty minutes be allowed for its consideration,, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Pott presented and read the following report:

R E P O R T
OF THE COMMITTEE ON WORK AMONG FOREIGN BORN PEOPLES.

Your Committee, not regarding itself as appointed to gather statistics, which has already been so ably done by representatives of the Federation of Churches, would merely preface its recommendations by the following statement: There were, at the beginning of last year, in Manhattan, Richmond and the Bronx, 192 Protestant places of worship where services were being held in a foreign tongue, ministering to twenty-seven different nationalities. Of these, only fourteen were contributed by our Church. It would thus seem to be self-evident that we are not bearing our share of the burden of ministering to foreign peoples in the City of New York, and offering them such religious teaching as is alone consonant with enlightenment and progress. As to that portion of the Diocese lying outside of the City, a questionnaire was issued by your Committee, in the hope of obtaining such statistics as might justify it in offering recommendations. The response was anything but adequate, only eight of our out-of-town rectors taking the trouble to reply. Still, your Committee believes that there is a very real problem created by the intrusion of foreigners into our rural communities, a problem which deserves the earnest consideration of our rural Archdeaconries.

That there is a genuine need of activity on the part of the Protestant churches of America, in view of the altered character of our immigration, few can doubt. It is not a campaign of proselyting upon which these churches are summoned to embark, rather to supply ethical ideals and incentives to peoples who, having never learned in matters of religion and morals to think for themselves, when ushered into the American atmosphere so inimical to all bondage, mental or otherwise, readily abandons the faiths of their childhood, and drift towards utter infidelity. The danger of inactivity consists in this. These people, needing some sort of inspiration, readily fall a prey to the wild oratory of the would-be reformers, who purpose creating a golden age upon the ruins of the civilization that man with so much effort has brought to maturity. The stability of our institutions, the continuation of an orderly progress along the lines laid down by reason and justice, depend largely, it would seem, upon Protestantism becoming aware both of its duty and opportunity, and girding itself for the mightiest task that has ever confronted it.

It must imbue these people with American ideals, with that true consciousness of the worth and dignity of the individual, which is alone the offspring of Evangelical Religion.

Your Committee is quite convinced that the present attempt to meet the situation is wholly inadequate. The various churches, each regardless of others' efforts, are spending, and often wasting, their energies in a campaign without direction or oversight, with the result of merely confusing the mind of the alien, solicited, oftentimes, in rivalry by so many forms of Protestantism. The first sane step towards the solution of the problem would seem to lie in a wise co-operation with others at work in the same field, and to all intents and purposes, seeking the same ends. Such co-operation would certainly lead to a more effective distribution of energy. There need not be two Protestant missions in the same neighborhood, ministering to the same people, in the same tongue, while elsewhere in the city another colony of the same nationality is wholly neglected. It is absurd for the Protestant churches to concern themselves in this undertaking with any effort to present precisely that form of worship and polity which commends itself to their following. You cannot create a history or a national experience in a day. The simple fundamentals of Evangelical religion are alone necessary. Let the rest follow when and as it will.

The co-operation here advocated has been successfully attempted in the Bronx, in connection with the Evangelical work amongst Italians. It has not at all been found impossible. Union meetings have been held in the Bronx Church House, attended by the Italian worshippers of all the Protestant churches of that county, and addressed by the various clergy. The work the Church is undertaking at Williamsbridge, in a hitherto neglected colony, is begun with the full consent and approbation of other workers in the field, and with their cordial assistance. As in the Foreign Mission Field it is becoming increasingly evident that some sort of co-operation is essential, at least in so far as the distributing of the field is concerned, and the spirit of amity and goodwill which the various Christian bodies manifest towards one another, so, too, in our home foreign field the same breadth of view is both possible and necessary. Where the Spirit of God vouchsafes His blessing, how venture we to withhold the right hand of fellowship?

If some such effort towards co-operation be made, and the Church confronts her problem realizing that she is but one of many instruments in the hands of God, there is a still further difficulty to be obviated. How shall she provide herself with a competent ministry for that portion of the work she undertakes as her particular province? A high order of competence is certainly necessary, for it is not so much the preaching of the Gospel as its interpretation that is essential, its translation into terms of the life of the people to whom we would minister. There must be a thorough understanding of the people, therefore, and the social side of Christianity will require large emphasis. There must be visible evidence that we have something worth while to offer. In view of this difficulty, two things would seem to your Committee to be necessary: (1st) That in the Church's conduct of this enterprise there should be a proper centralization, and (2nd) that the expenditure of her means should be in proportion to the importance of her task.

As to the first, we would suggest that the Cathedral be made the central sun from which should radiate the efforts for the relief and uplift of foreign peoples. Around its high-altar stand now the seven chapels of the tongues. They are as yet only outward and visible signs. There needs to be added the inward and spiritual grace, the devoted effort to minister to peoples of various tongues, before they will become truly sacramental. Perhaps nothing would so commend the Cathedral to the affection, esteem and goodwill of Churchmen generally as its undertaking this splendid work. Nothing would so seem to justify the vast expense of its fabric.

As to the financial aspect of the problem, a small endowment of $25,000 on each of the chapels, would render possible the establishment of scholarship or foundations to be awarded to selected men, preferably of the nationality to whom they would minister, in whose preparation for ordination special attention should be given to the acquisition of the necessary language, and to the understanding of the problems and difficulties of their peculiar field. These scholarships only to be awarded upon a solemn agreement on the part of the accepted candidate to serve in the field to which he may be assigned for a certain number of years.

As a provision for the time that must needs elapse before such a plan would begin to bear fruit, your Committee would suggest that proficiency in speaking some modern language be added to the requirements for candidates for Holy Orders in the Diocese of New York, at the discretion of the Bishop, and that the General Convention be memorialized to authorize the substitution of such proficiency for the partial knowledge of Hebrew at present required.

This is, of course, but a rough outline of a possible solution of the problem. Your Committee is, however, convinced that the present haphazard method of securing a foreign ministry can lead to but little result.

Having selected, in co-operation with other Protestant churches, that portion of the task which we would assume, it would seem the part of wisdom to prepare a ministry especially equipped for the special undertaking. The time that might seem to be lost in launching our effort, would be discovered to be time well spent, when at last we faced our problem. At present, while seemingly recognizing a responsibility to do everything, we are actually accomplishing very little. Let us first make our task definite to ourselves, which we can readily do by such co-operation as has been suggested, and then concentrate our efforts upon fulfilling it worthily.

In conclusion, then, co-operation with other churches we firmly believe to be the first essential of a wise and efficient campaign; centralization of our own efforts the second, and the preparation and training of a proper ministry, at however great expense, the third.

Respectfully submitted,

W. H. POTT,

HOMER FRANCIS TAYLOR,

MELVILLE K. BAILEY,

EDMUND L. BAYLIES.

Mr. Baylies offered the following resolutions and moved that the time for their discussion be extended one-half hour, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the report of the "Committee to consider the work being done by the Church amongst foreign-born peoples in the City and Diocese and its possible extension" be accepted and its recommendation approved, and that the Committee be continued with power (subject to the approval of the Bishop to add to its number, and that the Bishop and the Dean of the Cathedral ex-officio be members of said Committee, and that it make a further report to the Diocesan Convention of 1915.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That proficiency in speaking some modern language be added to the requirements for candidates for Holy Orders in the Diocese of New York at the discretion of the Bishop, and that the General Convention be memorialized to authorize the substitution of such proficiency for the partial knowledge of Hebrew at present required.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee be authorized to take the necessary steps to make effective its recommendations that the proper authorities connected with the Cathedral be applied to, to aid in the direction of this work among foreign-born peoples in this Diocese.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee be empowered by and with the approval of the Bishop to confer with officers or committees of religious denominations or societies within the Diocese with the object of formulating a plan or plans for co-operating with them so as to avoid waste or overlapping of effort, and, if possible, to evolve a plan for meeting and solving in the most effective way the problem of religious work among the foreign-born peoples of this Diocese.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Parks moved that twenty minutes be allowed for the consideration of the following resolution on the Calendar, which was adopted:

Resolved, That a committee of five, three clergymen and two laymen, be appointed by the Chairman of Convention to confer with the trustees of the Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York, to ascertain the composition of the Board of Trustees, to inquire into the disposition now being made of the income accruing from the endowment funds of said society and also for the purpose of discovering the equity of the Diocese of New York in said funds, the said committee to make a report at the next Convention of the Diocese of New York. This committee is also requested to submit such suggestions as may seem wise to it concerning a more adequate and equitable use of said income in the interests of the work of this diocese.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. A. G. Cummins, Litt.D.
The Rev. Charles L. Slattery, D.D. The Hon. Vernon M. Davis.
Mr. Henry Lewis Morris. Mr. Lawson Purdy.

Bishop Courtney, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented the following report:

R E P O R T
OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CANONS.

To the Convention:

The Committee on Canons report upon several matters referred to them by the Convention on the first day of its present session, as follows:

MOTIONS ON THE CALENDAR.

Part One.

1. The Rev. Dr. Gates' motion that a committee of five be appointed by the Bishop to draft a Canon for a Commission on Church Building.

Your Committee recommend the adoption of the resolution as proposed.

Which was adopted.

Part Two.

2. The Rev. Mr. Fell's motion that Canon XXIII (now Canon XVIII), Section 3 (1) a. at lines 9 and 10 be amended so as to provide that the two Presbyters and two Layman who now are required to be residents in the County of New York may be residents of the County of the Bronx.

Your Committee understand that the reason which led the Convention to adopt the present arrangement is connected with the preponderating responsibility of the Churches in the County of New York for the work of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society. The erection of the County of the Bronx has not materially affected that responsibility.

The Committee recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

3. Mr. Stetson's motion that Rules of Order of the General Convention be embodied in the the Rules of Order of this Convention in place of the reference to Cushing's Manual for guidance in cases not specially provided for.

This has already been done, and no further action is required.

4. Mr. Sague's motion that Canon XIII (now XII), Section 1, be so amended as to provide that except in the case of deputies chosen to fill vacancies no deputy from this Diocese to the Provincial Synod of the Second Province shall be eligible for election for one year after the expiration of his term of office.

The usefulness of the Provincial Synod, like that of the General Convention, will depend upon the effectiveness of its proceedings; and that in turn requires that its business be transacted by deputies who from experience have learned how best to transact it. Should the Convention disable itself from exercising its free choice in the selection of its deputies it would to that extent impair its power to contribute to the usefulness of the Provincial Synod. In other words, its deputies should not only be freely elected, but also freely selected.

Your Committee recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

5. Mr. Sague's motion so to amend Canon XIX (now XVII), in effect, to provide that the members of the Committee on Diocesan Finances shall be elected by the Convention instead of appointed by the Bishop, and for one year shall be ineligible for re-election.

The Committee on Diocesan Finances, more than almost any other committee of the Convention, requires for its usefulness to the Diocese the service of men who are acquainted with the financial needs of the Diocese, the manner in which its financial business is carried on, experience in finance in general, and the continuous policy of the Diocese. Under this proposal the members of the Committee would not have learned to perform their official duties with readiness and efficiency before they would be displaced, and a new committee would have to spend another year in learning their work.

Your Committee take leave to remark that while every office held under authority of the Convention confers a certain honor upon the incumbent, such offices as involve financial responsibility ought not to be conferred for the sake of the honor that attaches to them, but for the sake of the expert service which they involve. The principle of rotation in office rests, in part at least, upon the recognition and reward of general rather than specific merit. To such offices as membership in the Committee on Diocesan Finances and in the several boards of Trustees to whom the management of particular funds is entrusted, it ought to have no application.

With regard to the appointment of the Committee, there is probably no member of the Convention whose acquaintance with the clergy and the laity of the Diocese qualify him so competently to exercise the duty of selection as the Bishop.

Your Committee recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

6. Mr. Sague's motion so to amend Canon XX, Section 1, as to provide in effect that the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund shall be elected for four years and shall be ineligible for one year thereafter.

At present the Trustees of this Fund serve during the pleasure of the Convention.

Your Committee see no sufficient reason for changing the present arrangement, and recommend that the motion be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

7. Mr. Sague's motion so to amend Canon XXIV (now XXII) as in effect to apply the principle of disqualification for re-election to the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

Your Committee see, in this case also, no sufficient reason for changing the present arrangement, and recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

8. Dr. Otis's motion to adopt Canons providing for the election of Trustees of the Parochial Fund and of the Estate and Property of the Diocesan Convention, and to apply to them the principle of disqualification for re-election.

Hitherto the Trustees of both Funds have been elected by the Convention under the Rules of Order; and no sufficient reason appears to the Committee for changing an arrangement which has worked for many years to the satisfaction of the Convention, or for applying to them the principle of disqualification for re-election.

Your Committee recommend that the motion be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

9. The Rev. Mr. Reiland's motion so to amend Canon XVI (now XV), Section 2, as in effect, to deprive the Bishop of power to appoint three members of the Board of Religious Education, and to apply to the elected members of the Board the principle of disqualification for re-election.

This Board has to deal with a subject in respect of which expert knowledge of educational methods is desirable. The present arrangement places it in the power of the Bishop to select three members for their special qualifications known to him. Your Committee believe it to be sound in principle and adopted to the benefit of the Diocese.

The disqualification provision is already embodied in Canon XV, Section 1.

They recommend that the motion be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

10. The Rev. Mr. Reiland's motion so to amend Canon XXIII (now XVIII) Section 3 (1) b, as in effect to make all the elected members of the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society ineligible for re-election.

Now only the representatives of the counties are ineligible; the members elected by the Convention are re-eligible. The object of the Convention in making this distinction probably was to combine stability and continuity of policy with a certain amount of rotation in office; and the application of these two principles was probably guided by the conviction that in the counties the field for intelligent selection is more extended than it is in the Convention, especially as regards the laymen.

Your Committee do not perceive any sufficient reason for altering the existing system, and recommend that the motion be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

11. The Rev. Mr. Henshaw's motion so to amend Canon XIX, Section 1 (4)—now Canon XVII, Section 2 (1)—as in effect to provide that an assessment be levied upon the parishes, missions and congregations of the Diocese for the Social Service Commission.

This motion involves primarily a question of financial policy: whether the permanent annual charge upon the Diocese shall be increased by adding to it another subject. Your Committee are of the opinion that this question should be determined by the Convention in the first instance as a matter of substance rather than as a matter of statutory formulation; and they therefore report it to the Convention without recommendation.

12. The memorial of the Archdeaconry of Westchester with regard to representation of organized missions in the Convention, and the motion of the Rev. Dr. Cummins so to amend the Constitution (Article VII) as in effect to permit each successive Convention to determine what lay representation shall be given in cases where more than one church or chapel are united under one vestry, appear to your Committee to fall within the subject of proportional representation which the Convention has referred to a special committee; and they recommend that both motions be referred to the consideration of that Committee.

And they were so referred.

13. A motion to constitute a standing committee on the State of the Church.

Your Committee are disposed to believe that an occasional report on the State of the Church would be valuable. The material for it is contained year by year in the Journal of the Convention. They are doubtful whether an annual report would equally well serve the end in view; because the intervals are too short to admit of much difference between the report for one year and the report for the next, and therefore the report might become little more than a dry summary of vital statistics. They believe, however, that the experiment is well worth trying; and that before it is erected into a prominent institution and embodied in a Canon the Convention should have an opportunity to test it. The Committee therefore recommend, instead of the resolution as proposed, the following:

Resolved, That a special committee be appointed to prepare and present to the next annual Convention a report upon the general condition and state of the Church in this Diocese.

Which was adopted.

Your Committee further report upon certain proposals not on the Calendar for the first day, as follows:

14. To amend the last clause of Canon IV, Section 3, in some way so that the penalty for failure to file the report required by the Canon should not attach automatically to the declaration of default when made by the Bishop.

The Canon as amended on the floor of the House already provides for immediate readmission of the parish upon application to the Convention, and your Committee, having given deliberate consideration to the matter as the Canon now stands see no sufficient reason to change it.

15. Mr. Baynes's motion to amend Canon V by adding a new section to read as follows.

6. The Secretary shall, immediately upon their appointment, notify in writing the members of all committees named as a result of any action of the Convention.

Your Committee recommend that the proposed amendment be adopted.

And it was adopted.

16. Mr. Baylies's motion so to amend Canon XVII, Section 3 (6), as in effect to provide that the penalty for failure to pay the assessment upon a parish shall attach unless otherwise ordered by the Convention.

The Canon already provides for the reinstatement of a parish upon payment of accrued assessments. Your Committee believe that the value of a penalty consists largely in its certainty, and they are unable to recommend that in the case under consideration its operation should be affected by contingencies depending upon the kind feeling of the Convention.

17. Mr. Hobbs's motion to amend Canon XXIV—of the penalty for refusal to abide by the Bishop's judgment in cases concerning the dissolution of the pastoral relation—by striking out the words "deposed from the Ministry" and substituting therefor the words "deprived of the right to officiate at any service in the Diocese."

The Canon as it stands imposes upon the contumacious Minister the penalty of suspension from the Ministry and then provides that if such suspension continue for more than one year he shall be liable to deposition. The penalty proposed to be substituted for persistent contumacy is rather lighter than the penalty which had previously failed to move him to submit to the judgment. Your Committee recommend that it be not adopted.

Inasmuch as apprehension appears to be felt whether the penalty of deposition would attach ipso facto to the Minister in the case supposed. Your Committee take leave to remark that it could not do so. No Minister could be deposed without presentment and trial. Nevertheless, in order to remove doubts your Committee recommend that the Canon be amended by inserting after the word "liable" the words "after presentment and trial."

Which was adopted.

18. The suggestion of the Committee on Despatch of business to the effect that on the evening of the first day of the session, beginning with the Convention of 1915, there shall be a public meeting at which an opportunity may be given to the New York City Mission Society, the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, the Board of Religious Education, the Social Service Commission and the Church Temperance Society to present brief reports; and that the Rules of Order be amended accordingly.

On some occasions in the past public meetings have been held in connection with the Convention in the evening. It does not appear to have been deemed expedient to make them a permanent institution. At these meetings it was customary to deal with some large subject of wide interest. The proposal now before the Convention is to hold a meeting at which five topics shall be discussed. In the opinion of your Committee the public interest in such meetings would not be aroused, and the meetings would not be well attended. They further believe that members of the Convention, after sitting all day in the Synod Hall, could not be counted on to attend the meetings in such numbers as to give encouragement to the speakers or advantage to the causes they represent. In short, your Committee believe that evening meetings would be a failure.

They recommend that the resolution be not adopted.

And it was not adopted.

Your Committee are impressed by the pressure of business upon the Convention; the haste with which much of it has to be transacted; the meagreness of the time that is given to the really important things with which the Church is concerned. The unfortunate practice of reading important reports by title only has now happily been abandoned through the adoption of the new Rules of Order, and this cause also requires more time than hitherto has usually been given to the Convention.

In the judgment of your Committee the business of the Convention cannot be effectively transacted in two days; and a session of three days has become necessary, and should be the settled practice of the Convention. To accomplish this result no change in Canons or Rules of Order appears to be required: it should simply be understood that the Order of Business should be firmly adhered to; that business should rarely be taken up out of order; that the business before the Convention should be transacted with due deliberation; and especially that considerate attention should be paid to the really serious business, which is presented by the reports of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, and the other Boards, Commissions and Societies referred to in the motion of the Committee on Despatch of Business. By this means the business of the Convention will automatically run over into the third day whenever it is desirable.

19. The Rev. Mr. Chorley's motion to amend Rule of Order V, 7, by inserting after item (14) a new item as follows:

(15) Report of the Historiographer of the Diocese.

Your Committee recommend that the motion be adopted.

And it was adopted.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

By order of the Committee on Canons,

F. COURTNEY,
Chairman.

Mr. John Brooks Leavitt moved that the vote of yesterday adopting Canon XXIV be reconsidered, which was adopted.

Mr. Elon S. Hobbs offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the proposed Canon XXIV in the report of the Committee on Canons be recommitted to the Committee for reconsideration with the request that the Committee report at the next Convention.

Which was adopted.

Bishop Courtney moved the final adoption of the Rules of Order as amended, which adopted.

The Chair declared a recess until half past two o'clock.

The Convention reassembled at half past two o'clock.

Mr. R. Fulton Cutting moved that the Bishop's address, in addition to being printed in the JOURNAL, be printed in pamphlet form without expense to the Convention, which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Stires presented and read the following report:

R E P O R T
OF COMMITTEE ON CLOSER RELATION WITH FEDERAL COUNCIL.

At the last Diocesan Convention the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York extends to the Federal Council of the Churches in Christ in the United States of America its fraternal greetings, and, further,

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed to consider and report to the next Convention what steps can properly be taken by this Diocese to put itself in closer touch with the Federal Council."

The Committee appointed to consider the question presented in the second resolution begs to report as follows:

The Federal Council of the Churches in Christ in the United States of America is an organization of various Christian bodies for the purpose of solving through concerted action certain moral and industrial problems and to engage in branches of social service activity.

Each religious body has co-operated through its national organization and your Committee feels that appropriate action for the purpose of sharing in the important work of the Federal Council could be taken only by the General Convention.

With this statement the Committee have but one resolution to offer:

Resolved, That the Committee be discharged from further consideration of the subject.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances, recommend that the Treasurer of the Diocese be given authority under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances to make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese of the sum of $3,500 for the work of the Social Service Commission on the same basis as the apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions, and that any sums collected by the Treasurer of the Diocese under such apportionment shall be paid over to the Treasurer of the Social Service Commission.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances recommends that the Treasurer of the Diocese be given authority under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances to make an apportionment among the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese of the sum of $3,500, $2,000 of which shall be used for the work of the General Board of Religious Education, and $1,500 shall be used for the work of the Diocese Board of Religious Education on the same basis as the apportionment for Domestic and Foreign Missions, and that any sums collected by the Treasurer of the Diocese under such apportionment shall be paid over pro rata to the two Treasurers.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Committee on Diocesan Finances, recommends the appropriation by the Convention of the sum of Eighty-four dollars and ten cents ($84.10) to meet the expenses of the primary meeting of the Second Province, to be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Stephen Baker presented by title the report of the Diocesan Missionary Committee (see Appendix B), and offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That an appropriation of not more than $450.00 from the Diocesan Fund be made for the expenses of the Diocesan Missionary Committee during the coming year.

Which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Diocesan Convention heartily endorses the work of the Diocesan Missionary Committee in relation to parochial missionary committees and especially commends its endeavor to the attention of the Clergy of those Churches, Chapels and Missions of the Diocese who have not yet appointed a Missionary Committee.

And further,

Resolved, That the Diocesan Convention hereby refers the following questions to the Finance Committee of the Diocese for consideration.

(a) Whether in determining the parochial allotment of the missionary apportionment for general missions the Treasurer should not adopt a scale rising in single percentages in place of their present scale in order that the allotment made to parishes similarly situated may be more fairly proportioned according to the difference in their current expenses.

(b) Whether notice of the parochial allotment should not be sent to the Parishes, Chapels and Missions included in the Diocesan apportionment in the Spring as soon as possible after notice of the amount of the allotment made by the Board of Missions for the Diocese is received by the Treasurer.

(c) Whether the notice of such allotment should not be sent to the warden or trustee and to the treasurer of each Parish and Mission as well as to the rector and whether it should not contain a request for a report from the rector or treasurer at stated intervals and whether the money collected should be sent in as soon as collected or at regular intervals.

(d) Whether the actual expense of local mission work carried on by a parish or mission should not be deducted from the current parish expenses in fixing the basis for allotment of the apportionment and Subdivision 1 of Section 2 of Canon XIX amended accordingly.

(e) That the Finance Committee of the Diocese arrange for the following up of the collection of the apportionment for the current year and report on this subject fully at the next meeting of the Convention and meanwhile that they avail themselves, if they desire of the assistance of the Diocesan Missionary Committee in the premises.

Which was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Nelson, in behalf of the Committee on the Diocesan Seal, presented and read the following report:

To the Convention:

The Committee on a Diocesan Seal respectfully report:

They have given much consideration to the subject entrusted to them and have had the benefit of expert assistance: which they gratefully acknowledge, although they have taken the liberty of not following it in every particular.

In the first place they remind the Convention that, strictly speaking, a seal is not appropriate to a Diocese, or at least not to this Diocese, since the Diocese never performs an official act. The Bishop performs acts, in executing official documents, which are authenticated by a seal, which is the seal of his See. The Committee suggest therefore that any seal which may be recommended by the Convention for adoption by the Bishop of New York as his official seal, might properly be known as the seal of the See, rather than the Diocese of New York.

The seal embodies the arms of the See. Hitherto the See of New York has had no permanent coat of arms. The immediate predecessor of the present Bishop used an official seal on which his personal arms were impaled with the arms of the State of New York: a device not usual in heraldry. The present Bishop has been accustomed to employ for his seal a shield charged with his monogram; a device which is rather personal than official. Your Committee have consequently deemed it their principal duty to propose a coat of arms which in its character should be official rather than personal.

In considering the nature of the device which should be adopted, the Committee have been mindful of two associations which are prominently connected with the Church in this Diocese. Until the Revolution the Church throughout the Colonies was subject to the ecclesiastical jurisdiction of the Bishop of London. A reminiscence of that connection with the Mother Church in England is in place here. The other association connects the Church with the City of New York, at all times since the erection of the Diocese the seat of the Bishop. With these features it has seemed obvious to combine the sign of the Cross.

The device which your Committee advise the Convention to consider is described technically as follows: Quarterly gules and argent, a cross counterchanged per pale and per fess of the field; first and fourth quarters two swords, in saltire, the hilts in base, or, second and third, the wings of a windmill sable. The red color and the crossed swords are significant of the See of London; the white color and the windmill, of the City of New York.

To adopt this device to a seal, it is surmounted by a mitre, and the whole enclosed in a border, preferably of the vesica shape, bearing the legend connecting it with the Diocese of New York, 1785.

The emblazoned drawing which accompanies this report will give to the Convention a better conception of the appearance of the proposed seal, but as the drawing does not exactly express the idea of the Committee, they do not recommend that it be adopted precisely as it stands, but that, if the Convention and the Bishop approve the general design, the Committee be empowered to suggest to the Bishop such further variations in detail, if any, as they shall judge suitable; and they submit the resolution following:

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Diocesan Seal be accepted; and that the Convention approve the general features of the design proposed by the Committee, and recommend that with such variations in detail, if any, as the Bishop and the Committee shall judge suitable, the design be adopted by the Bishop as the Seal of the See of New York.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE F. NELSON,
M. H. GATES,
GEORGE ZABRISKIE,

Committee.

New York, November 9, 1914.

Dr. Nelson moved the resolution contained in the report and it was adopted.

Mr. Baylies offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee consisting of the Historiographer and the Registrar of the Diocese examine the records of the Conventions for the past twenty years and report to the next Convention what resolutions, whether appointing committees or not, are still in force, and with what subjects they deal.

Which was adopted.

Mr. Baylies addressed the Convention upon the work of the Seamen's Church Institute.

The Rev. Mr. Owen presented and read the following report:

The Women's Auxiliary to the Church Temperance Society has managed and maintained for nearly five years the Longshoremen's Rest at 164 Eleventh Avenue. This work is unique in this city and country.

Up to the present time no aid has been sought from the Church, in whose name the work has been done, or from the public. It has been entirely sustained from the successful operation of the seven lunch wagons, established by the Society. The profits from this source were allowed to accumulate, until sufficient funds were in hand to justify the Auxiliary in beginning the work for the longshoremen of this port. On May 1, 1915, it will have been in successful operation for five years.

It was confidently expected that at the end of this time, the Steamship Companies, whose men had been benefited by the Rest, would aid in carrying it forward. The suspension of business in the shipping world banishes this hope, and the fund which had been accumulated is now exhausted.

Unless the Society receives from some other source the sum of Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) with which to meet the expenses of the Rest to the first of May, this work, which has benefitted thousands of men and made them more sober and efficient, will have to be given up.

To close the Rest at the beginning of Winter, when the men need its warmth and shelter most, would be to them a great misfortune, especially in view of the fact that there will only be partial employment for many of the men.

The Society asks in this emergency for special donations or offerings from the churches in aid of this particular branch of its work.

Mr. Owen offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That this convention record its approval of the work done by the Woman's Auxiliary to the Church Temperance Society at the Longshoremen's Rest, that it recognizes the present financial need of the work, and therefore requests the Rectors of the Parishes in the Diocese to endeavor to make collections for the work and send them to the Treasurer of the Society, Mr. Irving Grinnell, 281 Fourth Avenue, New York City, on or before January 1, 1915.

Which was adopted.

Bishop Burch offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the provision for a Representative of the Diocese of New York on the Provincial Commission on Religious Education be placed in the hands of the New York Diocesan Board of Religious Education.

Which was adopted.

Mr. E. M. Camp offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee of seven be appointed by the Chair to plan meetings and exhibits of Missionary, Social and similar work of the Church during the Convention of 1915.

Which was adopted.

The Chair appointed as such Committee:

The Rev. R. E. Jones, D.D.	The Rev. E. P. Newton.
The Rev. C. K. Gilbert.	Mr. L. O. Morny.
The Rev. A. R. Mansfield.	Mr. Herbert S. Carter, M.D.
Miss Delafield.

The Rev. Dr. Gates presented and read the following report:

The Special Committee appointed at the last Convention to consider the proposed Canon on Church Buildings respectfully report:

(1) That they are unanimously of the opinion that, inasmuch as the interests of every parish and mission in the Diocese are in a measure the interests of all, the formation of such a Commission as the Canon provides is highly advisable.

(2) That the judgment of this Commission should not be mandatory in reference to the organized parishes, but only advisory.

(3) That in the case of missions, which depend wholly or in part on the Diocese for support, the advice and approval of the Commission should be obtained before undertaking the work of construction.

Your Committee believes that such a Commission as the Canon proposes would do much to elevate the character of our church buildings, as well as to guard against those serious errors of judgment and defects of taste which, with the best intentions have been so often imposed not only on their generation, but also on generations to come.

We are all agreed that the church building should attract and not repel. It should be an inspirer of reverence and devotion. In many ways it should be a teacher of truth. Moreover, for these purposes its power is not dependent on its costliness or its elaborate ornament, but on its conformity to those principles of taste and sacred art which the Church with marvelous skill has worked out and exhibited in all her long history.

The Committee finds that the following Dioceses have established Commissions on Church Building and Furnishings: Newark, Pennsylvania, Bethlehem, Los Angeles, Oregon, New Jersey and Maine, and that the reports of the Commissions so far established show that the Commissions have been consulted in numerous cases and have been able to furnish valuable advice and have rendered efficient service in their several Dioceses; therefore, we recommend the adoption of the proposed Canon.

The Rev. Dr. Slattery, in behalf of the Committee on Canons, presented the following report:

To the Convention:

The Committee on Canons respectfully report:

The Special Committee appointed by the Convention of 1913 to draft a Canon on Church building having reported the form of a Canon, this Committee, recommend that the same, as slightly amended, be adopted, and be inserted in its proper place in the Canons.

APPENDIX A

THE BISHOP'S ADDRESS

It is again my privilege to meet with you in Convention and to bring to your notice some of the more distinctive tendencies of thought in the present age, in order that the Church may address itself with a more effective service to its present and proper work. I realize that this is not an easy thing to do, because it is always a difficult thing for a person to interpret the tendencies of the age of which he is himself a contemporary part, in that his vision of it, however clear-sighted, is a vision without the adequate perspective. And because further, the present age, with so many cross and counter currents in it, so many teachers teaching, so many prophets prophesying, so many oracles clamoring to be heard, and all of them speaking with the tacit assumption of an ex-cathedra authority, is an exceptionally difficult age to interpret and express. Someone has suggested that an appropriate sign or seal for the present age would be, as expressing on the one hand its insatiable curiosity and on the other the alleged or supposed apathy of the Church, the following design:

An Interrogation Point Rampant;
Three Bishops Dormant;
With the word "Query" written underneath.

That may not be a fitting characterization; I hope it is not altogether so; but then what other is? For it is, as I have said, a difficult age to define with anything like a definite and comprehensive statement. This difficulty has been made still more difficult of late by the sudden irruption into the modern world of a new, or rather an old, unexpected force which has thrown it out of joint with all established reckoning. And while this international and fratricidal strife, this holocaust of war, is indeed the engrossing topic of the hour and might perhaps be made a topic by itself for this Convention address, yet there has been of late so much said about it both by press and pulpit, so many articles written and so many sermons preached, that there is apparently nothing new to be said, or not at least just now. And then too the present war is not representative of the present age. It is a reversion; or, in vulgar phrase, a throw-back, to a savage and barbarous age, and does not express or typify the sober thought of the people.

Let us then for a little while turn aside from this engrossing topic, from wars and rumors of wars, from an age drunk with passion, and try to hear and understand its underlying sober thought as we find that thought expressed in what may be regarded as its two interpreting voices,—the voice of its Philosophy and the voice of its Science. This may seem an ambitious classification for a brief Convention address and yet I hope its fitness will appear as we proceed; and possibly too we shall find that it is pointing out the way in which the Church should try to heal and cure the age of its conflicts and its strifes, to give it the blessing of peace and to bring it back to God.

First, then let us consider the voice of the current philosophy. The distinguished publicist, de Tocqueville, in one of his books, says, "Though I care but little about the study of philosophy as such, I have always been struck with the influence which it has exerted over the things which seem to be the least connected with it, and even over society in general. For philosophical ideas however abstract, metaphysical and apparently unpractical, penetrate at last, I know not how, into the realm of public morals." But the "how" or the reason of it is this, that the philosophy of an age is a kind of clearing-house expression of a felt and growing yet groping life or groping life-reality existing in the age.

"Just as Justinian's pandects only made precise,
What simply sparkled in men's eyes before,
Twitched in their brow, or quivered in their lip,
Waited the speech they called but would not come."

Now the philosophy of the present age, as all observing students clearly enough perceive—although it has been for a time arrested or suppressed by the lust of war—is not a material, but a spiritual philosophy, interpreting human life not in terms of matter but in terms of spirit. And it is the current philosophy, not simply as a current above the earth in the air, but because it represents a current in human life on the earth; because it expresses beneath the hard surface crust of our material things some nascent spiritual life which is today beginning to work and to make itself felt. A few years ago that was not the case, or not so much the case. The current philosophy then was a material philosophy, because the current life was then a material life, which Emerson described when in speaking of his own generation, he said:

“Today is the day of the chattel,
Web to weave and corn to grind;
Things are in the saddle and ride mankind.”

And so they did. And so they do now to some extent, to a great extent, but not to the same extent. A reaction has set in, and men have begun to find, not as the result of theoretical teaching but of their own growing and practical experience that they cannot live and find themselves, their full and normal selves, by means of bread alone, or by the material equivalents of bread. And so today they are reaching out after something else and more and beginning to take or to try to take something like a spiritual life or spiritual culture on. It is not only the few who are trying to do it; the many are trying to do it, the “common” people as we call them; Lincoln’s people; they too are trying to take some spiritual culture on, through libraries and lectures and Chautauqua assemblies and university extension courses, and in many other ways, not as a means to an end, but as an end in itself. It may indeed be fairly called a democratic movement, this movement towards some kind of spiritual life and culture, a movement of the people; not all of them of course, but many of them and more than ever before. Hence we find as expressive of all this that the current and appealing philosophy, the philosophy that is in the saddle today and riding mankind, is not a material but spiritual philosophy, and riding indeed so hard that it is riding some of the people off into strange bridle paths.

If then it be true that the current philosophy of any particular age is not merely a dream or dreamy speculation of fascinating interest to the metaphysical mind but the reflection rather of some real and growing life in the age itself, then does the spiritual philosophy which is current in this age bear witness to the existence in the age itself of some emerging spiritual life or spiritual value in it. It is in short the testimony of the age itself, apart from all other testimony, to the reality of the spiritual life, to which the Church must minister if it would minister to the age and bring it back to God.

But the real and sober thought of an age, its governing thought, is expressed not only by its philosophic voice but also by what is commonly called its "scientific" voice. And what today is that scientific voice? Is it too giving a spiritual message to us? There was a time, not long ago, some of us are old enough to remember it, when it was not a spiritual message, when we used to hear much about the conflict between science and religion or the spiritual postulates of religion. Many sermons were preached upon the subject and many volumes written. And yet, even then, some of the best and greatest and most effective preachers, ignoring this alleged conflict and contention and believing in the power of a spiritual message to elicit a response, made that spiritual message the burden of their preaching. Some of us can remember again a saying of Phillips Brooks, for instance, that never throughout the whole course of his ministry had he preached a single sermon on the conflict between science and religion. That was rather unusual then, but now it is not unusual. For that alleged conflict has now become an anachronism; it is obsolete and gone, or nearly though not altogether gone; for it still lingers on, or the echo of it does, in some belated minds, as a rudimentary survival of a past generation.

But how rapidly things have changed in these later days! Science is not hostile to religion now or to the spiritual postulates of religion, and the voice with which it speaks, like the voice of modern philosophy, is beginning to take a spiritual accent on and to give a spiritual message. Lest it should be thought that I am biased in my opinion by my own religious calling, let me quote what an up-to-date scientist has said; and although he does not say anything that you do not already know it may be well to hear it from a scientific source:

"The foundation on which has rested," he says, "the material school of thought, from Lucretius down to the present time, is the ultimate atom of matter, which was supposed and alleged to be the simple and primal basis of the universe and of all reality. Of late, however," he continues, "this foundation has been rudely shaken, if not overthrown; for now we know as the result of further scientific analysis that the atom of matter although of inconceivable minuteness is in its structure exceedingly complex, at least one hundred millions being contained in the least visible point under the highest microscopic power. It is in short a solar system in miniature, and each of these atoms again consists of still more minute negative electrons swiftly revolving around some positive central nucleus. Even the comparatively gross and complex atoms of gaseous matter move among themselves so swiftly that each of them encounters its neighbor some six thousand millions of times in every second."

These are inconceivable and overwhelming figures, but they are scientific figures, figures which go to show that all the things we see and touch and handle or sensibly perceive, that all phenomena are but unseen molecular motions in the all-pervading, impenetrable, inscrutable, elusive ether of space. And so, he adds significantly, science in its progress is resolving the seen into the unseen and confirming what we have long ago been told, that "the things which are seen were not made of the things which do appear."

I have quoted in substance the language of Sir William Barrett, F.R.S. As the result therefore of that infinitesimal analysis which represents the trend of modern scientific thought, science itself has sifted itself from the "ore of materialism," and matter is seen to be not the primary but the secondary expression of reality. Or, putting it in another way, the current of scientific thought as it has been traced further down the stream, and still further and further down, has been found at last to vanish and disappear and go into things unseen and eternal, thus widening out the horizon of our modern thought until it has become a spiritual horizon and given to our human life a spiritual environment.

Here then we have the two voices of the age, its two interpreting voices, not imposed upon it but proceeding from it, its philosophy and its science; one of them testifying to the reality of a spiritual life, and the other to the reality of a spiritual environment. But that is the voice or message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the reality of a spiritual life in the midst of a spiritual environment. This Gospel, therefore, of Jesus Christ is not something obscurant or out of date, but something rather up-to-date, the very latest date, and giving to the modern world for its modern needs and uses a circulating medium which, although it was minted long ago in the past, is now more than ever the current coin of the realm, ringing real and true. Or, changing the metaphor, this Gospel of Jesus Christ, is not an evening twilight, beautiful and peaceful yet slowly fading away and receding into the dark; it is a morning dawn, full of hope and promise, rising over the hills, filling the valleys and flooding the plains and making clear or clearer what the modern world itself is beginning to perceive,—the reality of a spiritual life in the midst of a spiritual environment. We sometimes hear men talk or speculate about the religion of the future and what it will or ought to be, that religion of the future. Well, personally I have no misgivings about the religion of the future; but even if I had, we are not living in the future, we are living in the present, we are feeling the needs of the present, we are facing the evils of the present; this living, beating, throbbing Present, with all its hopes and fears. And whatever the religion of the future may be—and sufficient unto the future is the future—the religion of the present and for the present, for its present needs and ailments and for the confirmation of all its brightest hopes, is the old, or if men please to call it so, the old-fashioned religion of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, asserting and proclaiming what the present age itself through its own self-revealing or self-interpreting voices, is beginning to perceive,—the reality of a spiritual life in the midst of a spiritual environment.

And this testimony of the age is not confined to a certain part or section of the age, our part of it, and which with a self-flattering complacency we are wont to call the more cultivated part, and then to speak of the other part as something foreign to us. We cannot make that cleavage today; it does not exist; there is no foreign part; the very word "foreign" is passing out of use, if not from the vocabulary of the Church at least from the vocabulary of the age; and, Kipling notwithstanding, the east and west can meet and do meet, they are meeting now; not merely in armed preparation for war, but in something which in time will do away with war. They are meeting today in thought, in the real, true and sober thought of the age. They are meeting in scientific thought, the science of the west penetrating the east. They are meeting in philosophic thought, the philosophy of the east penetrating the west. Or, putting it in another way, the new spiritual philosophy which is springing up in the west, is touching, meeting and mingling with and appealing to the east. I was recently told by a gentleman (not a missionary), who had had exceptional opportunity for noting and observing the thought—habit of modern Japan, that the thing which there impressed him most was not the remarkable physical or material development of the nation, but the avidity, "the remarkable avidity," he called it, with which the philosophic writings of Eucken (not his recent pronouncements, but his philosophic writings) were sought, read and studied by the people of Japan. It amounted, he said, to almost a physical hunger.

Yes, the east and the west are meeting today, and there as here the real, true and sober thought of the age is beginning to bear witness to the reality of a spiritual life in the midst of a spiritual environment. Everywhere, both east and west, the age is ripe and ready for the Gospel of Jesus Christ; and if the Church would do a really modern work, abreast of the time and up to date, it must do a foreign work, or what it still persists in calling a "foreign" work. I have not the time to dwell on this, or to speak of the Church's method through its Board of Missions of carrying on this work. That is a matter of detail which does not come within the scope of my present purpose, and I will say but this,—If the missionary method of the Church through its Board of Missions is at the present time faulty and defective, let us by all means correct it, but let us not turn the power off; rather let us try while improving these mechanical things, to keep the power on. For it is the mark of statesmanship in the Church, as elsewhere, "to improve the machinery without impairing the energy which keeps the machinery in motion." But that, as I have said, is a matter of detail, and I am speaking now not of details but of fundamentals. What I am trying to stress and emphasize is this,—that the present age is ripe for the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and that now is the time for the Church not to delete or lower or compromise its spiritual message to men, and not to hold it back from either east or west, but more confidently than ever, more hopefully than ever, to publish and proclaim it, and to call upon the people, east and west and everywhere, and in everything, not only in every private thing, but in everything, public as well as private, to seek first the Kingdom of God. In that way too will it help to make the new democracy which is coming, which is surely coming, which is rising on the world and spreading through the nations both in the east and west, and which neither statecraft, nor Cæsar-craft, nor war-craft, nor Church-craft can stop; not chiefly or not merely a scramble and a grab, a greedy grab and scramble, by nations or by individuals, but a great and growing spiritual force for the social growth and progress of the world, and to help it thus to reach that destiny still undetermined which in the providence of God awaits it in the future.

I referred at the outset to the present war: How shall we heal or cure that strife whose fearful loss and ravage, whose manifold forms of suffering it is impossible for language to depict? Or, how shall we prevent a future recurrence of it? By international treaties and arbitration courts? All that, of course, is good, very good. It is helpful and much to be desired and should be in every way encouraged and promoted. And yet must we go more deeply down than that, more deeply down than nationalism, with its national prides and ambitions and national glorifications; otherwise we shall find that we are building our national houses on the sand, and that when the storms of passion, of national passion, come, and jealousy and greed, and frictional attrition and all the winds and tempests of national pride and honor come and beat upon those houses, they will surely fall, as they are falling now, into the desolations and desecrations of a war without a parallel in the history of mankind, and shall be made to see as we are seeing now, how great is the fall thereof.

Yes, we must go more deeply down, and touch and reach foundations, and build upon a rock; and Jesus Christ is the Rock, not only for the security of the individual life, not only for the security and safety of the Church, but also for the security and safety of the nations; and not until the nations hear and heed His voice, speaking and saying to them, "Seek first the Kingdom of God," will strifes and wars and national conflicts cease, and national strength and safety and national greatness come.

It is a hard thing to attempt, even to attempt this kind of national greatness, harder far than fighting. It is a brave thing to attempt, braver far than fighting; but it is coming. The real, true and sober thought of the age is preparing the way for its coming, and the wars of the nations cannot stop, cannot hinder its coming. Through failures and reverses as well as through successes, under the helping guidance of the Christian Church, teaching, preaching and living the Gospel of Jesus Christ, it will continue to come.

"Strive if ye will, to seal the fountains
That send the Spring thro' leaf and spray;
Drive back the sun from the eastern mountains
Then—bid this mightier movement stay.

It is the dawn of Peace. The Nations
From East to West have heard the cry;
Though all Earth's blood-red generations
By hate and slaughter climbed thus high,
Here—on this height—still to aspire,
One only path remains untrod,
One path of love and peace climbs higher—
Make straight that highway for our God!"

REPORT

OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONARY AND CHURCH EXTENSION SOCIETY.

The Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society presents the following report for the year ending October 31, 1914:

During the year 87 Missions and preaching stations have been under the care of the Society, while assistance has been given to 17 parishes through grants to supplement inadequate salaries, or provide for extra assistance. Seventy-four Missionaries have been supported in whole or part by the Society.

During the year 421 have been baptized and 437 confirmed in the missions under the care of the Society. There are 3802 children in the Sunday Schools and 5653 communicants in these various parishes and missions.

We have received for the support of the work from the assessment on the parishes, $48,000, and from the Trustees of the Parochial Fund, $2,350, while the missions have themselves raised $49,416.25.

The work of the Society is in two departments, Missionary and Church Extension, and the missionary work is carried on in three distinct fields, that of following up our own people as they move about from place to place, the work among the immigrants, and rural work. The first is intimately connected with Church Extension and is largely confined to the neighborhood of our great city. Each year thousands of families are pushed out of the heart of the city. Among them are numbered some of our most substantial and interested supporters. If they find no church in their new neighborhood they drift away and their children are lost to the Church. The strength of the Church is moving from the center of the great city to its circumference. This movement will proceed more rapidly in the next generation. The strong, downtown Church, which desires to maintain and increase its strength, cannot do it in any better way than by starting a Chapel in a well-selected place in the outskirts of the city. It might be a drain upon the resources of the parish for a time, but before many years had passed the Chapel would be larger than the parent Church, and if its affairs were managed on a democratic basis it would be a source of supply from which the parent Church could draw. Trinity's latest Chapel, that of the Intercession, reported almost twice as many confirmed last year as any other Chapel of Trinity and has already outgrown them all. There are sections in our own great city where the Churches are scattered thickly, but there is still room in the outskirts. Much of the ground has been pre-empted by Churches which are struggling to do a work which has outgrown their capacity. Such Churches would welcome a helping hand. Each strong Church might well consider the wisdom of associating itself with one of these weaker Churches in a community of interests.

THE IMMIGRANT.

Owing to the great war the flow of immigration has greatly diminished, but New York's population is still four-fifths foreign, the families of immigrants average twice as large as those of Americans. Unless we Americanize these new comers the American element in the community will soon be submerged.

Many of the immigrants are already connected, at least nominally, with some Church, but too often the attachment is very loose. We have a splendid chance to reach and influence those who are drifting without any vital connection with any religious influences, we can get their children in our Sunday School, and help give them the inward restraints and incentives of religion. Where it is possible this would better be done in parish Churches, so that the children would be introduced to other elements in American life, and not encouraged to grow up in colonies. It is not always possible; there are places where we ought to establish separate chapels for foreign-speaking people; there are other cases where the whole Diocese ought to get behind the effort of the stranded parish to do its duty by the incoming population.

Opportunity for work among the immigrants is not confined to our great city; many are scattered about the country, and if they were welcomed and encouraged to come to our Churches we would get a large proportion of them.

RURAL WORK.

The work in the country is of two kinds, assisting ancient parishes, and developing new work. With new work is to be classed the resuscitation of missions which had been started and allowed to languish until they were nothing but a name.

Opportunities for new work are limited; we ought not to go into a community, where the religious needs of the people are already met, and weaken the common cause by starting another religious organization. But there are isolated hamlets where no definite religious work is being done; there are places which have grown so poor that the previously existing religious institutions have been starved out. Here we have a chance. Sometimes the rectors of neighboring parishes are quick to seize such opportunities. The Rector of Arden and the Rector of Tuxedo have both established preaching stations in isolated hamlets in their neighborhood. Sometimes the Archdeacon can find a missionary to take up the work. The missionary at Hopewell Junction, in Dutchess County, under the leadership of Archdeacon Pott, has developed four different stations. The missionary at Liberty has, under his oversight, a stretch of thirty miles on the Ontario and Western Railroad. He now has six regular missions and preaching stations, and holds occasional services elsewhere. In Roscoe, services are held in a store, in Hazel an old farm house is used, in South Fallsburgh a boathouse, and in Old Fallsburgh an abandoned church.

BISHOP'S CALL.

The Bishop's Call has brought in since the last Convention $6,609.99. This has enabled us to put a new roof on St. Edmund's Church, Bronx, to make repairs to All Saints', Henry Street, help St. Paul's, New Rochelle, and St. Joseph's, Elmsford, to purchase a new building for St. Martha's, Bronx, and to purchase lots at Ardsley, and for All Saints', Mariners' Harbor.

Many other inviting opportunities are before us, but we lack the money.

NEW WORK.

During the year, an Italian mission was started in St. George's, Williamsbridge, and a preaching station opened at Katonah and one at Ardsley, in Westchester County. Preaching stations were established in Stissing Junction, Arthursburg, Noxon, and Fishkill Plains, in Dutchess County, and at Hazel and Old Fallsburgh, in Sullivan County. The floating Chapel has been moved to the ground and placed on a suitable foundation for All Saints', Mariners' Harbor. A new building has been erected for the Italian Mission in Port Richmond, and a portable Chapel given to St. Martha's, Bronx, for its Sunday School.

A new mission has been started in the Dyckman Street section. This is one of the most rapidly growing sections of the city. There is no Church for a space of over two miles, north and south. The outlook here is most promising. But we need ground on which to build and we need it at once. The work cannot develop properly without a permanent location. If we could get the ground we could postpone the building to a more promising time.

During the past year the Bronx Church House Foundation turned its property over to this Board and we undertook to carry on the work in the Bronx Church House. This was done in the effort to unify the common work and has added greatly to our resources and responsibilities.

There is still some overlapping between the work of this Society and the City Mission Society. We are now supporting the work in the Chapel of the Messiah, which belongs to the City Mission Society. We would recommend that work in institutions in all parts of the Diocese be carried on by the City Mission Society, and that all work outside of institutions in New York or elsewhere be carried on by the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

DIOCESAN MISSIONARY COMMITTEE,

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

NEW YORK, NOVEMBER, 1914.

The resolution under which this Committee was appointed requires of it two main duties, namely, (1) to secure the organization of Laymen's Missionary Committees in the parishes of the Diocese and (2) to stimulate missionary interest and activity among them. With these purposes in view the Committee has met regularly each month during the past year, except July and August and has had a number of special meetings. Plans were discussed and later carried out to systematically bring the work of the Committee before the Churches in all Archdeaconries of the Diocese. As part of this work the Committee arranged for and held two public meetings for laymen of the Diocese. One at the Church Club on December 8, 1913, and the second on March 9, 1914, at Synod Hall. The theme of the first public meeting was "Missionary Activity in the Local Parish from the standpoint (a) of the clergyman and (b) of the layman." The discussion from the viewpoint of the clergy was led in an able address by the Rev. Karl Reiland, Rector of St. George's and that from the standpoint of the layman was interestingly dealt with by Mr. E. H. Outerbridge of St. James' Church, Manhattan. The second meeting, held on March 9th, was more general in character. The four hundred or more delegates were stirred by an address of the Ven. Hudson Stuck, Archdeacon of Yukon, reporting some of his experiences as a missionary in Alaska. This address was followed by an open conference on the subject of "What the Laymen's Missionary Committee Can Do," in which a number of delegates took part. At the close of the meeting a motion was made that each delegate pledge himself to do all in his power toward the collection of the apportionment in his parish. In response to the call of the Bishop for a rising vote on this motion the entire body of delegates representing seventy-five parishes rose to their feet.

Late in the Spring through the activities of a Special Committee the publication of a book written for laymen entitled, "The Cross. The Plus Sign in Our Minus Lives," was completed. The expense of publication and distribution of this book was met through the generosity of one of the members of the Committee. Since the Spring in the neighborhood of two thousand copies have been distributed and the publication has been warmly received. The book is divided into three sections, the first comprising a short history of the Church, the second an interesting and general survey of the field and the third, a survey of the growth of the movement among laymen and of what Laymen's Missionary Committees have done, closing with practical suggestions for such a Committee in the local parish. By reason of the various activities just referred to the sphere of the Committee's influence has considerably widened. The 118 Churches, Chapels and Missions with which it was in affiliation one year ago now number 149, an increase of 31. At the same time the laymen representing these Churches have increased from 640 to 768. There still remain, however, about 43 Churches, 11 Chapels and 1 Mission with congregations numbering fifty and over from which no response has been received in spite of the various notices and invitations addressed to the Clergy in charge. No doubt this may be due to a misunderstanding of the aims of this Committee. It is sincerely hoped that this misunderstanding may soon be removed through the realization of the clergy that in the parishes where active missionary committees of laymen exist the problems of Church finances, especially in relation to the apportionment, have been in great part lifted from the shoulders of the Rector. This has been frequently shown in reports of delegates representing parishes of different types at the public meetings of the Committee.

The Committee regrets to report the following resignations: received in the early part of the summer:—The Rev. Leighton Parks, D.D., Rector of St. Bartholomew's, of the Advisory Committee, and Mr. Mortimer M. Singer of St. Thomas' Church, Manhattan. The Bishop appointed in their place on the Advisory Committee, The Rev. Ernest M. Stires, D.D., Rector of St. Thomas' Church, and in Mr. Singer's place, Mr. Alfred M. Chapman of the same Church.

In the early spring your Committee were charged by the Bishop with the responsibility of following up the various parishes through their rectors for the purpose of assisting the collection of the apportionment of the Board of Missions as allotted by the Treasurer, under the direction of the Diocesan Finance Committee. As a first step in meeting this responsibility a general letter was sent out to all the Churches, Chapels and Missions of the Diocese on the apportionment list. It was considered advisable, however, to press in a personal way only cases where the allotment was one hundred dollars or over and where there had been a failure to collect the required amount during the preceding year. These parishes were distributed between the fifteen members of the Committee, giving about seven to each. In many cases no response was made to any communications sent either by the Committee or by the individual member of the Committee having charge of the parish and it became necessary to approach the different rectors by telephone or by personal interview.

Early in the effort it became known to the Committee that many of the rectors supposed that the Diocesan Committee was a self appointed organization and that this work of following up was an activity originating purely with the Committee and without other ecclesiastical authority. When the fact that the Bishop had requested the Committee to assume this work and had suggested a plan was brought to their attention many seemed to think even that did not give the Committee actual authority to interfere in the parishes. Again, in many cases there was a deep feeling on the part of some of the rectors that the apportionment was divided among the parishes very unevenly and unfairly, especially in those parishes which were largely engaged on special efforts both at home and abroad in this direction. They claimed that a large portion of their parish expenses was caused by their institutional mission work in and about their own parish, and that they should not be penalized on that account in the allotment made to them. This argument, of course, would not apply in parishes where a large amount of the current expenses of the parish was devoted to music and other ecclesiastical luxuries.

Others, again, who had examined the schedule for fixing the assessment prepared under the direction of the Diocesan Finance Committee, said that it operated in such a way that a difference of one dollar in the current expenses might raise the percentage allotted to a church from 19½ per cent to 23½ per cent or from 23½ per cent to 46½ per cent based thereon and that there ought to be a system by which the percentages were more evenly distributed. This does seem a fair criticism where one parish with parish expenses of $29,000 has an allotment of $6,815, and an adjoining parish with $31,000 parish expenses had an allotment of $14,415. Under the present system the difference in the allotment of the apportionment upon these two similarly situated congregations with almost identical parish expenses is $7,600; the allotment of the latter parish being practically double that of the former parish. Moreover, upon appeal to the Finance Committee special rates are granted to some churches, much lower than would be provided by the application of the fixed table, apparently for the reason that they have assured the Committee that they could not raise the amount of their particular apportionment unless it was largely reduced.

There seems no reason why the percentages of allotment adopted by the Finance Committee should not apply equally to all the parishes and if a parish is unable to meet its allotment so made, that should appear in the report, but a false impression should not be given on account of lower rates being granted by the Committee to certain parishes. Such parishes seem to have fulfilled their responsibility in paying their allotments, when as a matter of fact, they have a special privilege in rate which is not enjoyed by other parishes.

If there were an equitable distribution based upon the amount of parish expenses and those parish expenses were classified in such a manner that the luxuries and not the missionary efforts would be taxed and a scale rising in single percentages, similar to the method employed in the Diocese of Pennsylvania, were adopted it would in the opinion of the Committee tend to allay much of the objection which has been encountered among the rectors to the payment of the parish apportionment.

Many objections were encountered arising out of the misconception of the business methods of the Board of Missions and its system of apportionment among the dioceses. Questions were raised whether there is any limit to the amount which the Board of Missions can ask the Church to pay and as to the relative claims of persons in need about our own door as against those in foreign fields. After all, however, human nature will always remain an important factor in efforts of this character and unless the rector of a parish takes a broad view and co-operates with the Committee it is practically impossible to accomplish anything in a parish. Appeals to his parishioners, even when they are members of our auxiliary committee, are met with the response that they are powerless in view of the rector's attitude. Where, however, the rector displays missionary enthusiasm and follows up the lines of work indicated by the Board and the Diocesan authorities, he finds in his missionary committee a source of great help and strength in all his parish work. We have not as yet, after several years of experience, heard of a single case where the general contributions from the parish for all purposes were not increased by the formation of missionary committees and the prosecution of the missionary enterprise. There is no doubt a necessity in this Diocese that some individual or body of men should be charged with the duty of following up the collection of the apportionment from the parishes. The present canon is very limited in its terms and merely requires that the Treasurer of the Diocese should send out a notice under the direction of the Finance Committee fixing the amount allotted to each of the parishes in the Diocese. The practice has been to send a copy of this notice to the rector and another to the Treasurer of the parish. The notice contains in addition the assessments for the Diocesan and Episcopal Funds, and this year also for Social Service Work. It happens that frequently these notices are not brought to the attention of any of the wardens or vestrymen or any other persons in the parish. It seems to us that more explicit directions should be contained in the notices sent and that they should clearly show not only the apportionment for the parish in question, but for all the other parishes in the Diocese as well as the method by which the amount of the individual apportionment was reached. This notice should be sent to the parishes in the spring as soon as the amount of the allotment made by the Board of Missions for the Diocese is received by the Treasurer, and not delayed until late in the succeeding autumn. A report of progress from rector or treasurer should be required at fixed intervals and a return of the money collected up to the date of the report. In the present practice it frequently happens that money collected at the beginning of the year remains in the hands of the parish treasurer until nearly the end of the fiscal year of the Board of Missions, though it would have been of great assistance had it been remitted as soon as collected. Moreover the mere fact of having to make a report and having to remit from time to time at fixed intervals is a reminder which seems generally needed. It is hard enough to raise the amount required in this Diocese and every fair objection to the machinery by which it is allotted and collected should be obviated by a reform in the methods now pursued. If this is done your Committee are satisfied that the authority of the collecting officer or committee would be more generally recognized, the whole subject better understood both by rectors and their parishioners and the only open question remaining would be one with which your Committee has nothing to do, the criticism of the policy of the Board of Missions.

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York report that the capital of the General Fund in their hands is two hundred and fourteen thousand four hundred and eighty-four dollars and eleven cents ($214,484.11).

As no addition has been made to the capital of the Fund during the year, the receipts from investments will be insufficient to meet the deficiency in the income of the Fund for the salary of the Bishops.

The Trustees, therefore, recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese, acting under the direction of the Committee on Diocesan Finances, shall make an assessment on the Parishes, Missions and Congregations of the Diocese, of the amount necessary to be expended for the salary of the Bishops of the Diocese, beyond the income of the Fund to pay the following amounts:

For the Salary of the Bishop of the Diocese.....	$15,000 00
For the Salary of the Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese.....	7,500 00
For the Salary of the Secretary of the Bishop	2,000 00
For balance of rent of 33 Fifth Avenue and expenses of the new residence	2,500
	<hr/>

such assessments to be in lieu of the collection provided for by Canon for the capital of the Episcopal Fund."

The Trustees specially report as to the erection and cost of the Episcopal residence as authorized by the Convention of 1911:

At a meeting of the Trustees held on October 5th, 1912, the plans and elevation prepared by Mr. Cram and theretofore approved by the Bishop of the Diocese and by the Trustees of the Cathedral of St. John, were laid before the Trustees and the construction of the residence was ordered to be undertaken. There was then on hand the net proceeds of the sale of the former residence amounting to about $52,587, and assurances were then received, which the Trustees felt justified in accepting, of contributions sufficient to build and equip the residence upon the estimates then before the Trustees and formal arrangements with the Trustees of the Cathedral of St. John for the use of the land were made. By the hand of the Bishop of the Diocese, gifts have been received amounting to $135,375. from the following donors:

A. D. Huntington	$35,000 00
J. P. Morgan	20,000 00
Wm. K. Vanderbilt	10,000 00

R. F. Cutting	10,000 00
F. L. Stetson	5,000 00
James McLean	5,000 00
Mrs. E. H. Harriman	5,000 00
Mr. Reid	5,000 00
Lewis Morris	2,000 00
George S. Bowdoin	10,000 00
Mr. and Mrs. Sloane	25,000 00
Mrs. Hoe	1,000 00
Peter G. Gerry	1,000 00
James Goodwin	1,000 00
Susan B. Barnes	100 00
Anson Hard	250 00
Elihu Chauncey	25 00
	$135,375 00

The cost of the building has been increased, however, by architects' fees, cost of heat and light connection with the Cathedral plant and roadway work and the like, and as the Trustees have been disappointed for the present in further contributions, there remains still to be paid the amount of $30,503.01. The Trustees believe that a commodious and suitable residence has been provided for the Bishop of the Diocese and of a construction that for many years will require no extensive repairs or changes. The accounts of the building operations in detail are hereto annexed.

The Trustees therefore request and recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

"Resolved, That the action of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York in the erection of the Episcopal Residence upon the grounds of the Cathedral of St. John, as shown by their accounts submitted to the Convention, be, and the same here is, approved."

"Resolved, That the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund of the Diocese of New York be and they are hereby authorized, if in their judgment it is necessary, to borrow the sum needed to complete the payments due for the Episcopal Residence until such time as they may be able to provide for the same from gifts."

The Trustees present the following statement of account of the cost of the Episcopal Residence in detail, a statement of the investment and income of the Fund in the hands of the Trustees and also the statement of the Episcopal Residence Fund.

The Trustees report to the Convention that they have elected Mr. James Gore King as a Trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. George S. Bowdoin and they respectfully ask the confirmation of this election by the Convention.

TRUSTEES OF THE EPISCOPAL FUND OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

In accordance with your instructions, we have examined the following three accounts:

General Fund Account with the New York Life Insurance & Trust Co.

General Residence Fund Account with the New York Life Insurance & Trust Co.

Special Account with the New York Life Insurance & Trust Co. for the purpose of ascertaining the cost of the new Episcopal Residence erected on the grounds of the Cathedral, New York.

We find that the total cost of the residence, as shown by these accounts to September 18th, amounts to $220,641.82, and of this sum there has been paid $190,138.81, leaving a balance unpaid of $30,503.01.

In addition to the above stated cost of the residence, there has also been paid for rent, etc., of temporary residence and not refunded, the sum of $472.33 and there has been paid for fire insurance of the new Episcopal residence, applying since the date of occupation and not refunded, the sum of $96.73; together, $569.06.

On September 18th there was available in the two bank accounts which were kept for the Residence Fund, the sum of $1,445.90, so that if the expenditure made for rent of temporary residence and insurance on the Episcopal Residence after occupation were to be refunded, there would be available altogether, at September 18th, $2,014.96, leaving a balance of unpaid liabilities, for which it is necessary to raise funds, of $28,488.05.

The accounts show that there was a balance of cash available on June 1, 1912, of $53,054.38.

That since that date donations and interest allowed on the bank balances have amounted to $139,099.39, making the total receipts $192,153.77.

We attach summary of the accounts and shall be glad to afford any further information that may be required, upon hearing from you.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS,
Accountants and Auditors.

R E P O R T

OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund respectfully report that during the year 1913-1914 they have held three meetings. The receipts from investments at their disposal have enabled them to continue the stipends heretofore given to some of the faithful clergymen of the Diocese, all of whom are in receipt of salaries under $600 per annum.

The Board has dispensed the income from the several trusts committed to its care. No addition to the principal of the Fund has been made during the last conventional year.

A Discretionary Fund of $450 was appropriated to the Bishop of New York for the assistance of such clergymen as would otherwise be deprived of needed recuperation.

In addition to the annual appropriation made by the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund to its own beneficiaries, at the request of the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, the Trustees made (all payments to its own beneficiaries, and) such additional grants as its income warranted through the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society.

The annual report of the Treasurer is herewith appended.

Term of office of Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr. and Mr. Stephen Baker expired on October 1st. The Trustees suggest that the Secretary of the Convention be requested to cast a ballot for the retiring Trustees to succeed themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM JAY,
President.

WALTER THOMPSON,
Secretary.

Dated, New York, November 9, 1914.

October 31, 1914.

Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York, New York City.

DEAR SIRS:

In accordance with the request of your Treasurer, Mr. George A. Crocker, Jr., I have audited his accounts for the year ended October 1, 1914, and submit herewith my Certificate, together with four Exhibits and one Schedule as follows:

- Exhibit "A." Balance Sheet, October 1, 1914.
Schedule—No. 1. Securities.
- Exhibit "B." Income Account.
- Exhibit "C." Investment Account.
- Exhibit "D." Cash Account.

On December 1, 1913, the final instalment of $225 on the mortgage on St. Paul's Church, at Spring Valley, N. Y., was received and the mortgage cancelled. This amount further reduces the investment of the Rectory Aid Fund; the money belonging to this Fund and not invested is now $701.81 and represents the only principal money on hand uninvested.

On July 16, 1914, the Maffia Mortgage ($11,000 at 4½%) of the Graham Fund fell due and was paid off, the amount being promptly reinvested at 5% with the Lawyers' Mortgage Co. in a mortgage certificate representing $11,000 share in a guaranteed mortgage on premises at 331 Madison Street, New York; this mortgage is due July 26, 1919.

All information and explanation necessary for me to do the work of auditing have been supplied.

Respectfully,

THOS. B. DEAN.

Certificate.

I have audited the books and records of the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York for the year ended October 1, 1914, and have verified the cash and securities on hand.

I hereby certify that the four accompanying Exhibits entitled Balance Sheet, Income Account, Investment Account, and Cash Account, are correct and that the book records are in accordance therewith.

THOS. B. DEAN,
Certified Public Accountant.

R E P O R T

THE EIGHTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT OF THE NEW YORK
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

There is special and good reason why our Annual Report this year should take the form of a proclamation of thanksgiving.

Some other years have recorded greater obstacles overcome and evidenced a more brilliant leadership, but we venture to believe that no previous year has witnessed a higher degree of receptiveness on the part of those being ministered to, nor shown a more united front on the part of those doing the work and of those supporting it.

Following are a few of the main particulars which call for earnest thanksgiving as we close the story of the eighty-second and begin that of our eighty-third year:

First and foremost it is our reverent duty to give humble and hearty thanks to God, the Holy Spirit, for making the fields of our labor fallow ground, for moving life-long contributors in making bequests to provide upon their departure a year of unusually generous legacies in a critical year, and for inspiring all co-operating in labors with unwonted zeal and deeply spiritual consecration.

Second. We acknowledge with thanksgiving the fact that from the Bishop, our President, down to, the youngest member of our Board of Managers there has not been the difference of a hair in the purpose and policy of the Society. Harmony and the best of feeling has prevailed every day of the year. This has stimulated a marked measure of progress and conserved the most enduring of results.

Third. Adding a largely increased number of volunteer workers to our salaried force there are upwards of one hundred and twenty persons constantly busy in the wide field. This includes the representatives of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, the Island League, Social Service Committee, Ladies' Associations, and the Altar Guild, so far as their workers spend time systematically in the field itself.

Fourth. Special thanks are due Deaconess Young, formerly of St. George's Church, who has volunteered to work constantly among women inmates of the workhouse and to provide a shelter for promising converts upon their release in her own home; to Mrs. W. A. Nichols, for musical and spiritual ministry to the same class; to Miss Pierce, formerly at St. Thomas' Church, for daily services among women prisoners in the "Tombs"; to Mrs. S. K. Walker, for continuing her able work in the Criminal Courts; to Mrs. Hind, for organizing women's work for the City Mission; to Miss Loomis, for aiding the Superintendent in giving receptions in the Settlements and Parish Houses throughout the year; to Miss Hester Pherson, for contributing to the Mission News for the comfort of those sick with tuberculosis; to Mrs. Tripp, for valued services among immigrants at Ellis Island; to Miss Gregory, for being always on call for Hospital and out-door emergency work; to the Rev. Dr. Dodd, for planning aid of a systematic kind at the Farm Colony and Seaview Hospital, and to Mr. G. P. Doherty, for Bible Class teaching and aid through his Employment Agency.

Fifth. The Superintendent cannot speak highly enough of the spirit of brotherly love which has reigned among all Chaplains and head-workers, and among all Committees.

Sixth. The Altar Guild have nearly completed the Ward's Island Chapel at a great cost and are entitled to high praise for all their loyalty to the plans and purposes of this Society.

Seventh. Thanksgiving will be finely ushered in at the Penitentiary by the gracious gift of their large pipe organ by the Church of the Beloved Disciple, making it possible for prisoners to hear divine music after they are locked up at night. Master organists will volunteer to play this instrument week day evenings for the uplift of forlorn men.

Eighth. Our Social Service Committee at the City Home on Blackwell's Island are brightening up the inmates by filling the wards with flowering plants the year round; presenting lyceum entertainments; furnishing inmates with strong boxes for their small treasures and valuable letters; arranging ice cream treats, reading aloud, and supplying spectacles. The unmet need is for a resident dentist to save hundreds among the 3,200 inmates from frequent tooth ache and neuralgia. Toward this we are working.

Ninth. It is gratifying to know that our Board has beautified without and within all our buildings and is installing a steam-heating system within our buildings at the Church of San Salvatore.

Tenth. The Fresh Air work approaches perfection and seems quite fitted to its real purpose. The Vacation Cottage, under the self-governing plan of our Headworker, was the home of comfort and rest; the camp was praised in all quarters; the Sarah Schermerhorn met expectations except where we always have failed in trying to accommodate mothers with babies in the same house with others. We therefore will hereafter devote the Farm House to the mothers with babies exclusively, and reserve the large house for the crowds.

Eleventh. Finally, our thanks are due the City Churches and their Rectors for being our main support. Indeed we recognize that we are only their creation, the works of their hands. Their failure would threaten us with failure and their success would spell ours. We live one within the other and thank Providence for being over all.

Our chief desire is that we may be numbered with those who are on your prayer list, and daily let us pray fervently for one another.

In this year of international peril we must not fail.

It is most important that what follows be carefully read.

Respectfully submitted,

CHARLES PERLEY TINKER,

New York, November 7, 1914.

Superintendent.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MANAGERS OF THE SEAMEN'S CHURCH INSTITUTE OF NEW YORK.

In presenting the Seventieth Annual Report of the Seamen's Church Institute of New York, the Society desires to express its great satisfaction in having successfully operated during the first year its new building at No. 25 South Street. This building was opened for lodgers on September 15, 1913, but did not really become generally known to the seamen of this port until about December or January, yet during the period from November 1, 1913, to November 1, 1914, 155,075 beds have been occupied by seamen and officers. The beds in the dormitories cost 15 cents per night, the ordinary rooms cost 25 cents, the larger rooms 35 cents, and the officers' rooms from 50 cents to 65 cents per night. During the winter months practically the entire sleeping accommodation for seamen was occupied every night, and even during the summer months an average of 411 men slept each night at the building. The maximum capacity is 518 seamen and officers.

Although the funds for the entire cost of the building have not yet been entirely raised, it was thought advisable in February, 1914, to open the kitchen and restaurant in the new building. The Board of Managers are greatly pleased to be able to state that this department has been so run that its receipts have slightly exceeded its expenditures, and it is now making a small profit.

The amount of seamen's wages left with the Society for safe keeping has increased very largely during the past year. Between November 1, 1912, and November 1, 1913, $134,346.16 were received; but during the year from November 1, 1913, to November 1, 1914, $212,509.06 were so received, and of the last named amount $71,701.08, or about one-third, was transmitted to the families and relatives of seamen. The balance was either handed back from time to time to the depositors, or was placed in special savings bank accounts for them. The Society does not receive deposits in the ordinary banking sense of the term, and pays no interest for the money left with it.

The amount of seamen's dunnage cared for during the year has increased very largely, the number of packages checked being 19,793. For keeping seamen's dunnage the charge is 10 cents for the first month, and 5 cents for every month thereafter, or 65 cents for the year. As repeatedly said, this department is especially appreciated by seamen, for the safety of their personal belongings means much to them.

The Free Shipping Bureau has done successful work during the year, employment having been found for 3,360 men. During the extreme cold last winter temporary employment in shoveling snow was secured for a number of seamen, who were without any means whatever of paying for either board or lodging.

The "Sentinel" has been in use during the year while the new tender of the Society, to be known as the "J. Hooker Hamersley," has been building. It is expected that this latter boat will be launched during the present month and will immediately begin work. It will be a great improvement over the old boat, and will be most helpful in carrying out certain portions of the Society's work. It will be a gift to the Society by Mr. Louis Gordon Hamersley. The "Sentinel" has made 411 trips during the year and 1,524 visits to vessels.

The new South Street building forms an excellent permanent place of address for seamen's mail, and during the past year 20,392 letters and other pieces of mail for seamen were received there.

Four hundred and sixty-seven Religious Services have been held, at which the attendance was 19,329. These services are held in six different languages: Spanish, German, Danish, Swedish and Russian, besides in the English tongue. The work carried on among the Spanish sailors of this port, who have hitherto been largely without any religious care, has, under the guidance of Mr. Tuzzio, been exceedingly successful.

The Society has been very fortunate in interesting people outside of the City of New York in its work, and a considerable portion of its annual income now comes from such persons.

Although strenuous efforts have been made by the Building Committee during the past year to raise the amount due for the cost of the building, there still remains a balance of indebtedness of about $250,000, of which $100,000 has been promised contingently upon the remaining $150,000 being raised. The Building Committee, therefore, feels that it cannot rest until this entire balance is raised, and the debt upon the Institute paid off, for unless this is done it will lose the contingent subscriptions above referred to.

It is hoped that all who have not yet seen the new building will do so and endeavor to interest their friends, so that if possible this burden of debt may be extinguished. If the building can once be fully paid for, it will be self-supporting so far as the lodging and restaurant portions are concerned. Of course, the Society will always need additional contributions to sustain its Chapel and reading room at West Street and West Houston Street, to support its boat, to assist destitute sailors, etc.

The work at the North River Station, so called, which includes the Society's Church on West Houston Street, together with the connected building on West Street, containing reading and game rooms, has been most successfully carried on during the year. The attendance of seamen, both at the Church services and in the reading and game rooms, has been very large, the largest in the history of the Society. It should not be forgotten that the Seamen's Church on West Houston Street is the only Church edifice exclusively for seamen now maintained by any seamen's society in this city. While there are several Chapels for seamen, these are merely occupying space in buildings in which other work is carried on.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Dated, November 10, 1914.

EDMUND L. BAYLIES,
President Seamen's Church Institute of New York.

R E P O R TOF THE PRESIDENT OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE TO THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 11, 1914.

I have the honor to report that thirteen students were graduated at the Commencement last June, the second largest class in the history of the College.

The College opened on September the 18th, with an entering class of twenty-three, of whom fifteen were eligible for entrance to the Freshman class. Most of the others are regular coursemen, but will have to go into the preparatory department for a year. We have in the College altogether, about sixty-five men registered. Of these, fifty-six are studying for the Sacred Ministry, and these fifty-six are from about twenty different dioceses. I am able to state on the best authority that the standard of work in the College is very high. I was informed that last year at the General Theological Seminary, St. Stephen's College stood second in scholarship among all the educational institutions from which the theological students were drawn. This year, I fully expect that we shall stand first as we have sent an unusually well prepared lot of men. I hear similar accounts from other seminaries. I received a letter last year from President Finley, Commissioner of Education for the State of New York in which he told me that he was prepared to endorse the work of St. Stephen's College in the case of any of our men applying for post graduate work at the great universities. He also said that after having made careful inquiry he could confidently assert that the work of the College was characterized by its thoroughness.

The work of the Faculty is highly commendable and it is to them that we owe these good results. The general tone of the student body is most satisfactory.

The Trustees decided at their last meeting that, commencing September, 1915, the inclusive fees should be raised to $425 per annum. This is considered necessary on account of the increasing cost of all commodities. We do not anticipate any difficulty in filling the College with students who are willing to pay this higher rate in view of the fact that the College is now very much more widely known and appreciated and that half the men now registered are paying their own way with outside financial help.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM CUNNINGHAM RODGERS,
President.

R E P O R TOF THE DIOCESAN BOARD OF RELIGIOUS EDUCATION.

The Diocesan Board of Religious Education of the Diocese of New York exists in accordance with Canon XVI of our Diocesan Canons, as an adjunct to the General and Provincial Boards of Religious Education. This, our position, should be borne in mind by the Convention. The Church in General Convention assembled has in recent years laid marked emphasis on Religious Education. The Diocese of New York is called upon to support that emphasis, using this Board as its mouth-piece. Your Board can speak no louder than you encourage it to speak by your backing.

For the Diocesan Board of New York we report:

First. We have settled finally the difficult question of the relation of the Sunday School Commission to the Board. All appeals for financial support now come only from the Board. The Commission is an incorporated body, entirely independent of the Board and of the Diocese; continuing, however, the supply and the advisory work built up in years of honorable service as the Sunday School Commission, Diocese of New York.

Second. Teacher Training Courses have been held at the Diocesan House, under competent lecturers, with examinations and diplomas in accordance with the standard set by the General Board. The attendance has been small, but devoted and intelligent. Courses of instruction, without examinations or awards, have also been given at local centres. It is our purpose to hold more of these local institutes, as the Diocesan House is difficult of access specially in the evening. A school for regular study, day after day for a continuous period, is much to be desired.

Third. Committees have been further formed from the Board on Home Work and Missions. It is our aim to get into closer touch in every possible way with the parishes scattered throughout the Diocese. The Board of Religious Education should be a counselling and inspiring force just where such is most needed, in outlying sections of the Diocese.

What New York seems most to lack in this matter of religious education is leadership. It does not suffice in a great Diocese like this to say that the Bishops are the appointed leaders. Massachusetts has a powerful leader in her Bishop; yet Massachusetts has long had a special educational leader. We have thought in New York that our Archdeacons might act as such educational leaders; their duty, however, by the Missions of the Diocese hardly leaves them the time or the opportunity for a broad educational programme. Does not New York need an Educational Secretary of its own, not merely for Sunday Schools, but for Religious education in the large? That will mean, of course, money to back the diocesan work, as well as our quota on the general work, for;

Fourth. Your Board has made every effort to raise the money, $3,500, appointed by the last Convention for the General and the Diocesan Boards. While thirty dioceses are backing the General Board with almost the full amount asked of them, New York only attempts to raise about one-quarter of the amount asked of it, and the parishes pay in barely one-half of the apportionment voted.

The programme outlined by the General Board is a noble one. It is not limited to Sunday School work. It extends the conception of religious education to the home, to primary and secondary schools, to the college and theological seminary. In furthering these large views on religious education the heads of departments make visits all through the Church to diocesan and provincial assemblies. Correspondence courses of study are sent out from the central office—your president is much interested in examining papers returned on a course for lay readers. Unified systems of teaching are suggested wherever there is opportunity. Plans for religious education in Church schools are devised and encouraged. More than all, an effort is being earnestly made to call the attention of youth in the earlier stages of study to the opportunity and demand for the Christian ministry.

In such a programme the General Board deserves our backing, a backing of hearty encouragement as well as of money. Its aims are high, its officers are young men of foremost ability and devotion. Its propaganda literature alone is worth the cost of the Board, and is an invaluable instrument, absolutely essential in the early stages of a great movement, for an agitation which shall bye and bye secure the approval which the cause deserves.

We earnestly ask the Convention to fill the vacancies in the Board with the names of clergymen and laymen both interested in education and with time to serve. Do not elect as members of this Board simply gentlemen whom you happen to know and wish to compliment. Two resignations of laymen having occurred during the year, their places have been filled by the Board till the meeting of Convention by the election of Mr. Richard Wegener and Mr. Stephen F. Bayne. These gentlemen are commended to you for the group serving till 1916. There are two clergymen and two laymen to be chosen to serve till 1917.

R E P O R T OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMISSION.

In presenting its fourth Annual Report to the Diocesan Convention, the Social Service Commission scarcely needs to remind that body of the extreme importance, in the judgment of the Church, of the work commonly known as Social Service. The last Lambeth Conference commended it most heartily to the conscience of the Church, and further recommended that each Diocese should appoint a Social Service Commission. Our own Diocese, we are proud to say, had anticipated such recommendation, having already awakened, under the leadership of its Bishop, to the great importance of social problems and the need of action by the Church for their solution. While the Social Service Commission of the Diocese of New York was not absolutely the first to be created, it was one of the first two or three such organizations in the American Church. There are now seventy-six such Diocesan Commissions.

Not desiring to burden you with details of administration, we shall limit our report to the four most important features of our work during the past year.

Parochial Organization.

A resolution passed at the last Diocesan Convention urged upon the rectors of parishes the formation of parochial committees to co-operate with the Diocesan Commission for the social betterment of their respective communities. In adopting this resolution, the Convention implicitly imposed upon the Commission the special obligation of co-operating with the rectors of parishes to secure such local committees. To secure the requisite information to enable the Commission to act intelligently in the premises, a communication was sent to all the clergy of the Diocese requesting specific information regarding their parish activities. We regret to report that only forty-six replies were received. Few as the replies were, however, they proved of great assistance to the Commission, putting it in touch with many social service committees or agencies in the parishes reporting, and with a number of men and women throughout the Diocese who are interested in social work.

In continuance of the effort to secure the co-operation of the rectors of parishes, an appeal was made for the observance of Labor Sunday. Appropriate topics for sermons were suggested and assistance in securing material and information for such sermons was offered, and the request was made that the Commission be advised whether or not Labor Sunday would be observed. Here again we regret to report an evident lack of interest in a matter of really vital importance. Only 40 out of the 335 clergy addressed answered, nearly all of whom, it is gratifying to add, expressed the intention of observing Labor Sunday.

If the Commission encountered indifference in these matters, it is willing to believe that this was due to preoccupation or pure inertia and not to any deliberate ignoring of the important task committed to us by the Diocese. That the churches are concerned with the problems with which we are engaged is indicated by the numerous invitations extended to the Executive Secretary to deliver addresses on social topics in all parts of the Diocese.

The work of the Social Service Commission can be made efficient only by the earnest co-operation of the individual parishes. The Commission stands ready at all times to assist in the organization of local social service committees and to furnish speakers on subjects related to its work whenever desired.

Citizenship.

As a most important part of the co-operation of the Church in Social Service, the Commission took up, over a year ago, the question of the larger obligation of the Christian citizen to the community of which he is a member. Much of the social unrest in the community has been due to political corruption and inefficiency, which in turn is largely due to the failure of Christian men to recognize their obligation to the State and to society in the performance of their civic duties. To bring this home to the individual members of the Church, the Commission appointed a committee to draw up a citizen's pledge and to endeavor to secure the adoption of that pledge by the men of the Church. The pledge proposed is as follows:

I Believe that it is the duty of every Christian man to exercise his responsibilities to the State and Nation.

Therefore I pledge myself to look upon the responsibilities of my citizenship as duties which I owe to God.

Therefore I will do all in my power to aid the cause of righteous citizenship and to persuade others so to do.

I Promise to exercise my influence to secure the nomination and election of none but fit men for public office.

I Promise to cast my ballot at every election: to accept jury service unless honestly prevented.

This pledge was brought to the attention of the clergy shortly before the recent election and many requests for copies of the pledge were received and many expressed their intention of bringing the subject before their congregations at Sunday services. The Commission solicits the opportunity to present this matter to the rectors of parishes and, through them, or with their approval, to their congregations, to men's clubs and similar organizations.

The Problem of Unemployment.

At the last Convention the following resolution was referred to the Social Service Commission.

"Resolved: That this Convention hereby creates a Commission for the Homeless and Unemployed composed of three Presbyters and two Laymen to make a study of conditions existing among homeless and unemployed persons, and to devise and put into operation such remedies for their relief as they may find possible."

The matter was of such very grave importance that, on consideration, the Commission asked "that time be given for further consideration of the report at the next Convention," which was granted. Consequently during the year past the Commission has given special attention to the problem of unemployment. With the approval of the Bishop a special Committee on the Homeless and Unemployed was created, consisting in part of members of the Commission, in part of others of expert knowledge or special experience, which committee was also represented by its Secretary on the larger interdenominational committee of clergy. Moreover, at the request of the Commissioner of Charities of New York City, our Executive Secretary organized and was Chairman of an interdenominational committee of clergymen, who investigated the municipal lodging house, and it was he who prepared the report of that investigation, which was submitted to the Mayor and very cordially received by him. Our committee has drawn up a very careful report of the problem of unemployment, containing proposals for parochial co-operation, which report has been separately printed. Copies of the same have been sent to rectors of parishes throughout the Diocese and with the consent and approval of the Bishop of the Diocese the Commission is now endeavoring to enlist the parishes in the effort to put the plan into practical operation. There is no more important and pressing problem before the Church in New York at the present moment than this problem of unemployment. It was acute last winter; it will be more acute this winter. The Church was quite unprepared to meet it last year. It doled out petty and inadequate charities, but, for lack of plan and of organization for co-operation, it could do no more. Its failure to rise to the occasion gave point to the utterances of agitators and demagogues, who made the Church the subject of attack because of this inefficiency. The ultimate solution of the problem requires the co-operation of the whole community, with local agencies scattered throughout the State. In the meantime, however, the Church must act to give relief in the present critical situation in an organized and intelligent manner. By so doing it can help to educate the community and prepare the way for the establishment of permanent agencies. That is the special work which the Commission has before it this winter, with the consent and approval of the Bishop of the Diocese, in which it asks and requires the co-operation of every clergymen and every parish.

Excise.

The Diocesan Convention of 1911 referred to the Commission a resolution denouncing the abuses of the liquor traffic, with instructions to take steps to recommend some remedy for those evils. The committee has twice reported on this matter to the Convention. In the reports of both 1912 and 1913 it concerned itself particularly, as the first step to be taken, with the proper execution of the existing laws of the State controlling and regulating the traffic in liquor. It pointed out that the high license law of this State, which was officially interpreted by the highest court of the State as a police and not a tax law, has been, from the time of the passage of that law, in 1896, persistently administered as a tax law in order to obtain revenue. However good a high license law may be in theory, so abused it becomes a menace to the morals of the community. Where money is the first object, the authorities of necessity sell the right not merely to traffic in liquor, but also to violate the law for money. The revenue derived from the liquor law in this State is enormous, some eighteen million dollars each year, plus about $450,000 collected from fines and penalties, which latter sum, instead of being used in perfecting and strengthening the administration of the law, has been treated as part of the revenue of the State.

In its report to the Convention of 1913, your Commission, after reiterating in principle what it had said in the report of the previous year, asked the Convention to adopt a resolution calling upon the Excise Commissioner to enforce the law in accordance with the decision of the courts, as a police measure and not merely or primarily for the collection of revenue; calling upon the Governor to insist upon obedience to the law on the part of the Commissioner of Excise and calling upon the Legislature of the State to make proper financial provision for sufficient legal assistance and a sufficient force of inspectors to equip the Excise Commissioner to obey the mandate of the law.

The Convention approved this resolution and ordered that the report of the Commission to the Convention on the liquor problem be sent to the Governor of the State and the Commissioner of Excise, and it appointed a large and representative committee of twenty-five to appear before the Governor to urge the whole subject on his attention and to present to him the resolutions adopted by the Convention. The matter was thus taken out of the hands of the Commission, for which the Commission was devoutly grateful, believing that, if anything were to be accomplished, the Convention must stand behind the resolution adopted and push the policy proposed.

The Commission has, therefore, no further report to present on the matter of Excise, except to reiterate the recommendations of the last report, in the hope that the Convention, having taken the matter up, will not allow it to rest.

Conclusion.

The position of the Commission among the recognized social agencies of the community, which is now assured, is one which reflects much credit upon the Church and the Diocese. As a point of contact between these forces and the organized life of the Church the service of the Commission has been frequently employed, and a far more sympathetic and cordial attitude on the part of such agencies toward the Church has resulted. This is specially evident in the extent to which the services of our Executive Secretary have been sought both by public authorities and various social organizations. Our efforts for the general development of our work have been handicapped, it is only fair to say, by the failure of the parishes to accord that measure of co-operation which is essential to our success. Our work has also been interrupted by unavoidable changes in the office of Executive Secretary. The year, however, has had its achievements, which we believe must commend themselves to the Diocese. The fact that the community has been led to expect and to demand larger things of the Church, is not the least of the benefits of the Commission's efforts. With the continued support and the growing interest of the parishes in the task committed to us, your Commission is confident that the Church can be made a far more influential factor in the righteous solution of the great human problems that are before us.

Parishes Disestablished.

The Church of the Redeemer, 153 West 136th Street, New York City.
History: On April 6, 1828, the Rev. William Richmond began to hold services in the village of Yorkville and organized St. Matthew's Church, which was never incorporated nor reported to the Convention save as "another church in Yorkville." On the separation of St. Michael's and St. James' in 1842 the work at Yorkville was carried on from the latter parish and maintained for several years. As an outcome of this effort the Church of the Redeemer was organized in 1852 by the Rev. Peter S. Chauncey, Rector of St. James', then in Hamilton Square. The church was situated at 85th Street, between Second and Third Avenues. On January 17, 1865, the Common Council of the City of New York granted the use of lots at 82d Street and Park Avenue, on which site a frame church was opened on November 1, 1867. A stone church was subsequently built on the same site and opened in 1890. Owing to financial and other complications this edifice was sold on October 7, 1897. The following year—March 1, 1898—the parish was consolidated with the Church of the Nativity (which church had previously consolidated with the Church of the Holy Innocents) situated at 153 West 136th Street, under the name of the Church of the Redeemer. In spite of this consolidation the work was pursued under increasing difficulties, partly financial and partly arising out of changes in population, and on January 22, 1913, the property was sold for a sum sufficient to pay all its obligations, and the parochial organization was dissolved. The following is a list of the Rectors of the parish and the dates of their election:—February 1, 1853, Rev. Peter S. Chauncey; September 17, 1853, Rev. William J. Frost; March 17, 1863, Rev. Dr. S. C. Thrall; June 17, 1865, Rev. Dr. John W. Shackelford; November 28, 1891, Rev. Dr. H. G. Batterson; March 1, 1892, Rev. Henry C. Adams; December 6, 1892, Rev. William E. Johnson; December 6, 1892, Rev. Henry C. Adams (Associate Rector); December 15, 1906, Rev. William W. Davis; April 11, 1911, Rev. Henry C. Dyer.

On Ash Wednesday, in addition to the regular daily services, there is Morning Prayer, Litany, Penitential Office and Sermon at 11 A. M. Good Friday, Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11 A. M. Thanksgiving Day, Morning Prayer and Sermon at 11 A. M.

THE CHOIR SCHOOL has begun its year most auspiciously, and deserves to take its place among the important diocesan institutions, for it has increased within the past two years the institutions of the Diocese, by adding to them a fine boarding school for boys, with a competent staff of teachers, and a large well equipped building with an adequate endowment for its maintenance. While its primary purpose is to furnish boys to sing in the choir of the Cathedral, it accomplishes much more than that, for it is preparing forty boys both educationally, morally and spiritually, as well as musically, for their life work. There are more applications for membership in the school than can possibly be granted, so that it is possible to choose boys, not only for their voices, but on the basis of their character and general educational possibilities. These boys come from all parts of the United States.

THE DIOCESAN AUXILIARY TO THE CATHEDRAL (Mrs. Henry W. Monroe, President), is composed of two hundred and six (206) Delegates from one hundred and five (105) parishes, and a large number of Members. Its work is performed by the following committees: 1. Altar Committee, which supplies linen, hangings, flowers, etc., for the Altars of the Cathedral, the care of which is entrusted to the Deaconesses of St. Faith's House. 2. Committee on Cathedral Boxes, to secure contributions in the various parishes and at the Cathedral. 3. Choir Committee, which provides equipment and furnishings for the Choir School and supervision of its housekeeping, and also supplies and cares for the choir vestments. 4. Committee on Delegates, to increase the number of parishes represented in the Auxiliary. 5. Committee on Missions, which supports the Italian Mission at 236 East 111th Street, with its nine clubs and classes, under the charge of an Italian Priest and Deaconess, and the Colored Mission at 54 West 134th Street, with its home for working colored women.

THE CATHEDRAL LEAGUE (Robert G. Hone, Esq., President) secures funds by subscriptions among its members for the erection and endowment of the Cathedral. It has over six hundred members, who have subscribed One Hundred Dollars ($100) each, payable in not more than ten equal annual installments. Its present efforts are directed particularly towards increasing the Building Fund for the Nave.

THE FRESH AIR ASSOCIATION OF THE CATHEDRAL OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE is an independent corporation and entirely dependent upon voluntary contributions. It owns a spacious fresh air home and thirty acres of land at Tomkins Cove, on the west bank of the Hudson River. The house, which is called the House of St. John the Divine, was opened as usual in the middle of last June. It sheltered, for about two weeks at a time, six parties of beneficiaries during the season, each consisting of fifteen women, mostly mothers with their babies, and sixty-five children, mostly between six and sixteen years of age. There was also a Labor Day party. In addition to this work of mercy, the nearby Boys' Camp was occupied by parties of boys—fifteen for two weeks at a time. The greater part of these beneficiaries come from the following churches: The Holy Apostles, St. Cornelius, St. John the Evangelist, The Comforter, St. Ambrose Italian Mission, and the Music School Settlement. The Superintendent of the House of St. John the Divine, is a trained nurse, and during the winter she is on duty as the Bishop Potter Memorial Nurse, visiting the members of her summer household at their homes in the city, and ministering to the sick. A Chapel stands on the fresh air grounds near the House of St. John the Divine and also near the Vaughan Teachers' Rest, and its services are attended by congregations from both these gracious shelters. Through the generosity of Mrs. James Herman Aldrich, the donor of the Fresh Air Home, the Chapel was provided with a fine bell last summer, in memory of Bishop Potter.

The Church edifice was enlarged during the summer by extending the south end so as to provide for twelve new pews and equivalent seats in the gallery, adding nearly 40 per cent to the seating capacity of the church. A new roof was put on, and a new porch built and the whole structure thoroughly repaired and painted within and without. To permit this, services were suspended during August.

Glass for two new windows was presented by Mr. Thomas E. Kirby, one of the congregation.

The architects for the alteration were Messrs. Parish and Schroeder, of New York, and the contractors were Messrs. D. F. Dakin Co., of Mt. Kisco, for the building and Messrs. Shannon and Beck, of Yonkers, for the painting.

During the year, a Convalescent Home for the Parish has been opened at Norwalk, Conn., and a good many persons have availed themselves of it, to get back, after illness, to a normal state of health before returning to work. The Home is in charge of the former Parish Visitor, Miss Mary Clifford, who in the months when it is closed, still superintends the Summer Home at East Norwalk, where about one thousand children are cared for in batches of about seventy at a time; while for a fortnight or so prior to its opening, and again after its close, several weakly women and babies get a breath of pure country air.

A large new organ has been placed in the Church of the Holy Trinity by the liberality of Miss Serena Rhinelander (lately deceased), to whom the whole Mission owes its existence, and additional endowment of a legacy of $50,000.00.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received reports, according to Canon, from the following Clergymen of the Diocese not having Parochial or Missionary charge.

THE REV. STURGES ALLEN, O.H.C.

"Reports that during the past year his residence has been at the Mother House of the Order of the Holy Cross, at West Park, N. Y. He has celebrated the Divine Mysteries daily with few exceptions. He conducted a retreat for All Saints' Sisters of the Poor, of which he is Chaplain, and has made addresses on various occasions."

THE REV. HENRY ANSTICE, D.D.

"Respectfully reports that he has officiated almost every Sunday in churches where his services were desired, and during the week he has been busied with the duties of the several positions which he holds in church organizations and as Secretary of the General Convention."

THE REV. WILMER PARKE BIRD.

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York that during the greater part of the past Diocesan year he has resided abroad, having returned to New York on account of the war in Europe."

THE REV. HUGH L. BURLESON, D.D.

"Reports that during the past Convention year he has been exclusively engaged in the discharge of his duties as Editorial Secretary of the Board of Missions, to which he added, at the request of the Bishop, from May 1st to September 1st, the temporary charge of St. Peter's Parish, Portchester. Outside of this he has performed two marriages in the City of New York, both of which have been reported to the nearest parish priest. He has also had a marriage and a burial in Connecticut."

THE REV. C. P. A. BURNETT.

He has celebrated the Holy Eucharist 71 times, baptized 2 persons, officiated at 2 marriages and 1 funeral, and has preached 13 sermons."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop of New York that during the last Conventional year, owing to the infirmities of extreme old age, his priestly and pastoral work has been restricted to the celebration of the Holy Communion on the Lord's Day, in his private Oratory, during seven months of residence in Ridgefield, Conn."

THE REV. WILLIAM A. DALTON.

"Begs to report that during the past year he has been engaged in serving various churches within the Diocese of Albany as substitute or assistant as opportunity offered."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON, D.C.L.

"Respectfully reports that during the past canonical year he has done much Sunday duty in Boston and elsewhere, in the week being diligently occupied in literary, chiefly historical, work. His latest book, which is just now published, is a life of a remarkable old Boston divine, a grandson of the Rev. Increase Mather, and a nephew of the Rev. Cotton Mather, the Rev. Mather Byles. This Puritan minister was the father of that Mather Byles who during the troubles preceding the Revolution was for seven years Rector of Christ Church in Boston, but who spent the last years of his ministry in Halifax, Nova Scotia, and St. John, New Brunswick, at the latter of which places he died in 1814."

THE REV. J. GOTTFRIED HAMMARSKÖLD, D.D.

"Begs leave to report that during the past Convention year he has conducted 219 services, taken part in 51 others, preached 167 sermons, delivered 58 addresses, administered Holy Communion 29 times, baptized 27 children, solemnized 14 marriages, officiated at 12 funerals, and attended to his duties as General Missionary to the Swedes."

THE REV. ARTHUR P. HUNT.

THE REV. J. O. S. HUNTINGTON.

"Respectfully reports that during the year he has continued to visit St. Faith's House at least once a week, saying evensong and preaching or catechising in the evening, and celebrating the Holy Communion the following morning. When unable to go, his place has been taken by some other priest, usually one of his community. On Sundays those at St. Faith's House attend one or more of the services at Christ Church, which is only two doors away.

Four adults and 4 infants have been baptized, and 7 persons have been confirmed. There have been burials of 1 adult and 2 infants. There were 58 celebrations of the Holy Eucharist, at which 296 communions were made."

THE REV. D. PARKER MORGAN, D.D.,
Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York City.

"Respectfully reports that during the past year he has continued in charge of Christ Church, Sharon, Conn. He has also officiated on several occasions in the Church of the Heavenly Rest and elsewhere."

"Has the honor to report that during the past Convention year he has assisted at the Holy Communion 6 times and preached 42 times. The state of his health, or lack of opportunity, has prevented him from officiating oftener."

THE REV. J. FREDERICK TALCOTT.

CONSTITUTION
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH

As Adopted October 11, 1796; and Amended October 17, 1827; October 2, 1834; October 4, 1839; September 29, 1843; September 26, 1850; September 28, 1860; September 28, 1882; September 26, 1889; September 14, 1902; September 28, 1905; November 15, 1906; November 14, 1907; November 12, 1908; November 8, 1911.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese in each year. It shall be held at the Cathedral on the second Wednesday in November, unless the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, or, in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, unless the Standing Committee shall appoint another place or time.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall consist of the Bishop and the Bishop-Coadjutor (if there be one), and the Suffragan Bishops (if there be one or more) of the Diocese and of Clerical and Lay Members.

The Clerical Members shall be those Clergymen canonically resident within the Diocese not less than six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, who shall be either Archdeacons of the Diocese, or settled in some Church in union with the Convention, or in the Cathedral, or employed as Missionaries under the direction of the Convention, or engaged within the Diocese as Professors or Instructors in any incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated charitable institution, or Clergymen who, having attained the age of sixty-five years, shall have retired from the active work of the Ministry after holding for not less than ten years one or more of the positions hereinbefore named.

The Lay Members shall be male Delegates from the several Church in union with the Convention, not exceeding three from each Church, chosen by the Vestry or Congregation.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with such services as shall be approved by the Bishop, or in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and the Laity shall deliberate in one body. In voting each clerical member shall have one vote, the Bishop, the Bishop-Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishops, having the right to vote with the clergy. When votes are taken by orders the lay delegates of each Church shall be entitled to one vote, except that when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention prior to the last Wednesday in September in the year of our Lord 1859; the delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to one vote for each Church or Chapel.

Except in cases where a vote by orders is required, the concurrence of a majority of the Clerical and Lay Members voting shall constitute a vote; but in any case a vote by orders may be required by five members. When a vote by orders is taken the concurrence of a majority of the members of each order voting shall constitute a vote. In the election of a Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately.

ARTICLE VIII.

Whenever in the Constitution or Canons of this Diocese provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none, or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person, in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

ARTICLE IX.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANON I.

Of the List of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case of his absence or disability, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee, shall prepare a list of all the Ministers canonically resident in the Diocese, with their titles and places of residence; but no Minister while under suspension shall be included. The list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and shall be printed in the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Right to Seats.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, or in case of his absence or disability, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee, shall prepare a list of the names of all Clergymen entitled under the Constitution to seats in the Convention; which shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be evidence of the right of all those whose names appear thereon to a seat.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the Constitution by the Convention.

SEC. 3. (1) The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention relating to the Filling of Vacant Cures, all notices of the election of Rectors that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with that Canon.

(2) Every Clergyman who shall be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or in case of his absence or disability from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention, and shall transmit it to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding subdivision of this section.

(3) Every Clergyman employed as a Missionary under the direction of the Convention shall procure from the Bishop; or, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, from the Archdeacon, a certificate that he is so employed, and shall transmit it to the Secretary, who shall record it in the book aforesaid.

(4) Every Clergyman engaged as a Professor or Instructor in an incorporated institution of learning, or as Superintendent or Chaplain in any incorporated Charitable institution, shall procure the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed, and shall transmit it to the Secretary, who shall record it in the book aforesaid.

SEC. 4. (1) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be chosen by the Vestry; from Churches having no Vestries, by the Congregation.

(2) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate shall be a certificate stating the time and place of his election, signed by the Rector of the Church and, as the case may be,

by the Clerk of the Vestry or by the Secretary of the Congregational meeting. If there be no Rector, or if the election be made at a meeting legally held in his absence, then the certificate shall so state, and shall be signed by the person who presided at the meeting instead of the Rector. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of this Canon, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member of the Church which he is appointed to represent, and that he is entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen, or, in the case of a Church having no Vestry, that he has been a member thereof for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment.

No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 5. A copy of the fourth section of this Canon, and a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, with the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of Clerks of Vestries and Secretaries of Boards of Trustees of parishes in union with the Convention, immediately after the appointment of Lay Delegates, and at least one week prior to the meeting of the Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by this Canon. From the certificates thus received the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 7. The presence of at least fifty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least forty Churches, shall be necessary to the transaction of business; except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 8. If the Bishop be not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, and the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall preside until a President be elected as provided by the Constitution.

SEC. 9. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or in his absence or disability, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

He shall also call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him under this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 10. The calling of the names of the Clergy and of the Lay Delegates may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the members of the Convention present; provided that satisfactory evidence of the presence of a canonical quorum of each order be laid before the Convention by the Secretary. In such case the Secretary shall secure a correct list of the Clergy and of the Lay Delegates present.

SEC. 11. A quorum being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized. In any case where under the Constitution it shall be necessary to elect a President, the election shall be by ballot, unless the ballot be dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present.

SEC. 12. SEC. 1. Every Church desiring admission as a parish into union with the Convention shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the resolution of the Vestry or of the Board of Trustees authorizing such application; in which resolution the Church by its Vestry or Trustees, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the Canons, rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention, and to pay its Rector, in regular monthly or quarterly installments, a salary of not less than $1,500 per annum, or to pay a salary of not less than $1,200 per annum and to provide a suitable residence. The copy shall be certified by the presiding officer and by the Clerk of the Vestry, or of the Board of Trustees; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The application shall also be accompanied by a copy of the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same; and also by a certificate of the Bishop, or in case of his absence or disability, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the incorporation of such Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established; and also, by a certificate, executed by the authority of the Vestry, or of the Board of Trustees, authenticated by the seal of the corporation, to the effect that such Church is willing and able among its own members to provide at least $1,500 per annum for the salary of its Rector, or at least $1,200 for his salary together with a suitable residence.

Every Church applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in its congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York save the Religious Corporations Law, shall declare upon its face that the Church is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificates of Incorporation of Churches, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (1) No application for the admission of a parish into union with the Convention shall be considered or acted upon, unless the same be transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(2) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such committee examined, considered and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever the Rector of any Church in union with the Convention shall neglect for two years in succession to make the Parochial Report required by the Canons of the General Convention, or whenever any such Church for two years in succession shall not have employed a Clergyman as its parish Minister, the Bishop shall report such Church to the Convention in his Annual Address, and such Church shall thereby forfeit its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have the right to send Delegates to it.

Such Church, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just.

The Historiographer of the Diocese shall hold his office under the appointment, and during the pleasure, of the Bishop.

After each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an X at the right of the name of each person for whom he votes. On the first balloting these ballots only shall be used, and also in all subsequent balloting, except when otherwise ordered by the Convention. CANON XVIII.

Of the Committee on Diocesan Finances.

SEC. 1. (1) At every annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint two Clergymen and four Laymen, who shall serve for one year, and until their successors are appointed, and who with the Treasurer of the Convention, ex-officio, shall constitute a Committee on Diocesan Finances. Vacancies in the Committee, except in the case of the Treasurer, shall be filled by the Committee.

(2) Every motion, resolution or recommendation calling for a contribution or an assessment of money for any purpose shall be referred to this committee, who shall consider the same and report thereon to the Convention.

(3) The Committee shall exercise general supervision of the financial affairs of the Convention, and shall endeavor to secure simplicity and certainty in the collection of funds, and coöperation between the various trusts and boards of the Convention. They shall keep a record of their meetings, and shall annually report their proceedings to the Convention.

(4) After consultation with the various agencies receiving appropriations from the Convention, the Committee shall submit to the Convention annually a Budget of Diocesan Expenditures; in which shall be included the estimated requirements of the Episcopal Fund, the Diocesan Fund, and Diocesan Missions. The Convention, upon consideration of the Budget, may approve, reject, or modify it, and shall make its appropriations accordingly.

SEC. 2. (1) The Treasurer, acting under the direction of the Committee, shall annually make an assessment on the parishes, missions and congregations of the Diocese for the total of the amounts appropriated by the Convention for the following objects, respectively :

- (a) The Episcopal Fund,
- (b) The Diocesan Fund,
- (c) Diocesan Missions.

(2) The Treasurer under such direction shall also apportion among the parishes, missions and congregations the amount apportioned to the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

SEC. 3. (1) The assessment for the objects named in Section 2 (1) shall be based upon the current expenses of each parish, mission or congregation, as shown by its annual report. For this purpose, current expenses are hereby defined to include all ordinary expenses for salaries of Rectors and all Clergymen connected with the parish; salaries or wages of lay readers, sextons, janitors and assistants; maintenance of music; light, heat and power used in the churches.

The notification to each parish, mission or congregation of its annual assessment shall indicate the amount assigned to it for each of the objects for which the assessment is laid.

(2) The annual report of each parish, mission or congregation shall be presented on the first day of the annual Convention, or in default thereof its current expenses may be estimated by the Treasurer upon such information as he may be able to obtain.

(3) The Treasurer, under the direction of the Committee, shall prepare an assessment roll based on the current expenses as so reported or estimated, and shall fix the rates of assessment. A notice of the amount of the current expenses and of the assess-

(4) The assessment so laid by the Treasurer shall be deemed to be confirmed unless before the first day of February, the Board of Adjustment shall take action modifying or correcting the same.

(5) The amounts of such assessments shall be charged by the Treasurer against the parishes, missions or congregations, severally; and each of them shall make payment of its assessment to the Treasurer in two equal installments, one on the first day of February, and the other on the first day of August next ensuing; and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to attend to the collection of the same.

(6) It shall be the duty of the Treasurer to report to the Bishop the names of all parishes, missions or congregations that for two successive years shall have failed to pay the sums assessed against them for Diocesan purposes, and the Bishop shall report the same to the Convention in his annual address, and such parishes shall thereby forfeit their connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have the right to send delegates to it, until all accrued assessments be paid.

(7) The apportionment among the parishes, missions and congregations of the amount to be raised by the Diocese for Domestic and Foreign Missions shall be made on the basis of their current expenses as above defined, and the same classification of parishes, missions and congregations shall be adopted as in the case of assessments for Diocesan purposes. The provisions for modification, confirmation and adjustment herein prescribed for Diocesan assessments shall be observed also in respect of such apportionments. Payment shall be made to the Treasurer of the Board of Missions, and not to the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 4. There shall be a Board to be known as the Board of Adjustment, consisting of the Committee and the Archdeacons, c.r-officio.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment to receive any petition or request regarding the assessment upon any of the parishes, missions or congregations of the Diocese, and after due consideration to adjust the same at such amount as the Board shall deem to be equitable and fair. The Board of Adjustment shall certify the amount so determined to the Treasurer by the first day of February in each year, and thereupon the Treasurer shall cause his books to conform with the action of the Board and shall notify any parish, mission or congregation if any change has been made in its assessment by the Board of Adjustment.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Adjustment also to make such adjustments as they shall deem to be proper in respect of the apportionment of any parish, mission or congregation for Domestic and Foreign Missions, upon a written request from it for such action, and the Board shall certify to the Treasurer any change that they may make in any apportionment.

SEC. 5. The Committee shall fix the character and amount of security to be furnished by the Treasurer of the Convention and by any other treasurers over whom the Convention may have jurisdiction.

SEC. 1. The Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, may determine, and from time to time may alter, the boundaries of the parishes and mission districts of this Diocese, and may constitute new parishes and mission districts, and may erect mission districts into parishes; provided that not less than twenty days' previous notice of a time and place when the Standing Committee will hear any persons interested in the matter shall in each case be given to the incumbents of such parishes or mission districts as in the opinion of the Standing Committee may be affected by the proposed action. The Bishop's certificates of the determination or alteration of the boundaries of parishes or mission districts, of the constitution of new parishes or mission districts, and of the erection of mission districts into parishes, countersigned by the President of the Standing Committee, shall be delivered to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall record the same in a book to be kept by him for the purpose, to be called the Diocesan Register of Parishes and Mission Districts, and shall furnish a copy thereof, in the case of a parish or of a mission district forming part of a parish, to the Rector of the parish, who shall cause the same to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Vestry; or, in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, to the Society, who shall cause the same to be recorded in its Book of Minutes; or, in the case of any other mission district, to the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the district shall be situated, who shall cause such copy to be recorded in the Book of Minutes of the Archdeaconry.

SEC. 2. SEC. 3. Where in any town within this Diocese there is but one parish or mission, the limits of the town shall constitute the boundaries of the parish or mission district, and shall be so certified by the Bishop, unless upon the application of the Rector and Vestry, or Board of Trustees, of the parish, or of the Archdeacon in charge of the mission district, the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall otherwise determine. The boundaries of a parish or mission district may include more than one town or parts of more than one town.

SEC. 4. When the boundaries of a parish or of a mission district shall have been determined by the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, the territory so bounded, in the case of a parish, including a mission district forming part of a parish, shall constitute the parish or cure of the Rector thereof; in the case of a mission district assigned to a chapel or mission maintained by the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, shall constitute the parochial cure of the Superintendent for the time being of that Society; and in the case of any other mission district shall constitute the parochial cure of the Archdeacon within whose jurisdiction the mission district is situated; and such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon, as the case may be, shall be deemed the incumbent of such parish or mission district; provided that nothing in this Canon shall be taken to prevent such Rector, Superintendent, or Archdeacon from conferring upon the Minister in charge of any mission district such authority in respect thereto as he may think fit.

SEC. 6. Tentative missionary work, authorized by the Bishop and the Board of Managers of the Diocesan Missionary and Church Extension Society, may be prosecuted at any place they may designate, after conference with the incumbents of the three parishes or mission districts whose places of worship are nearest to the proposed site; but such work shall not be continued more than one year unless with the license of the Bishop; nor shall any building for such work be erected or purchased unless and until the Bishop, with the advice and consent of the Stand-

SEC. 2. All moneys belonging to the Episcopal fund shall be loaned by the Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. All securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change investments. A statement of all receipts and disbursements, and of the condition of the fund and securities shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XXII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which are commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the Congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, and the Seaman's Church Institute of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XXIII.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five Lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen. Vacancies occurring during the recess of the Convention, may be filled, except in the case of the Bishop, by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds:

1st. A fund for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese;

2nd. A fund for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese.

SEC. 3. It shall be the further duty of the Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows:

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to the limitations indicated in, the report of the Special Committee made to the Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such further rules and regulations as have since been adopted by the Convention, or as the Trustees, with the approbation of the Convention, shall from time to time adopt;

2nd. As to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to the limitations laid down by, the regulations adopted by the Convention of 1886 in relation to said fund, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as the Trustees, with the approbation of the Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 4. A collection shall be made annually in every Congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on

*"(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

" . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

"With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest:

"1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

"2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or infirm to continue his ministry; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given caeteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

Christmas Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following either of those days.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by the Board shall, in the absence of a special designation of one or other of the said funds by the donors, be applied as the Trustees in their discretion may determine, subject, however, to any other or different appropriation by the Convention of any particular gift or legacy. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by the Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said funds. All moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 5. The Trustees shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

CANON XXIV.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become liable to presentment and trial, under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz.:

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offenses of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry, or of the Board of Trustees, of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offense or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, they shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offense, may dismiss it; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offense, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear the evidence, which shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witness cannot be produced upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary, who may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, to take the testimony of any such witness. The party so applying shall give to the adverse party at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony; and if the person on whom the notice shall be served reside more than five hundred miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional five hundred miles, or fraction of five hundred miles, of the said distance. Both parties may attend and examine the witness. The questions and answers shall be reduced to writing, shall be signed by the witness, shall be certified by the Commissary, and shall be enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be communicated without delay to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as in his opinion may be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop.

SEC. 10. The Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice so requires, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, before whom the proceedings shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 11. Service of a written notice or other paper provided for by this Canon shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to, and leaving it with, the party to be served or his counsel, or by leaving it at the last known place of residence of such party, or the office or residence of his counsel. Service shall be proved by affidavit.

SEC. 12. Either party may appear by counsel.

CANON XXV.

Of Alterations in the Canons and Additions Thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice thereof be given in open Convention; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by the Committee on Canons.

Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

(1) The call for the order of the day, (2) an appeal from the decision of the Chair, (3) an objection to consideration; or the motions (4) to adjourn, (5) to lay on the table, (6) to take from the table, (7) for leave to continue speaking, (8) to postpone indefinitely, (9) to reconsider, (10) to suspend rules, (11) to take up business out of order, or (12) for leave to withdraw a motion.

XXVII. When a substitute is pending the motion to postpone indefinitely shall not be in order, but unless otherwise therein provided the motion, (1) to postpone to a certain time, (2) to commit or to re-commit, (3) to take a vote immediately or at a certain time, or (4) to extend limits of debate shall cover both the substitute and the main question.

NON-DEBATABLE QUESTIONS.

XXVIII. There shall be no debate upon a motion (1) to refer to any Standing Committee a resolution then first offered to the Convention, and properly referable to such Committee; but the member offering such resolution may speak five minutes in explanation of its purpose. There shall be no debate on a motion (2) to recommit to a Committee, but without instructions, any report of such Committee then before the Convention.

Neither shall there be any debate upon any of the following questions, viz.: the motion, (3) to lay on the table, (4) to take from the table, (5) to take a vote immediately or at a time certain, (6) to adjourn unqualifiedly, (7) to extend limits of debate, (8) of an objection to consideration, (9) of precedence of motions, (10) of priority of business, (11) for a recess (12) to permit a change of vote, or (13) to permit the withdrawal of a motion. Any member may speak not more than two minutes on the following motions, (14) to adjourn to a time certain, (15) to fix a time to adjourn to, (16) to postpone to a definite time, (17) to suspend rules, or (18) to take up a question out of order.

XXIX. All questions of order shall be decided by the President without debate; but any member may appeal from such decision, and on such appeal any member may speak, but not for more than two minutes, or more than once without express leave of the Convention.

RECONSIDERATION.

XXX. Except as duly reconsidered a question once determined shall stand as the judgment of the Convention; and, except with the consent of two-thirds of the Convention, neither such question nor any question substantially the same in effect shall be considered anew during the same session of the Convention. The question whether such consent shall be given shall be submitted and be determined without debate before the main question shall be taken up.

XXXI. In all questions decided numerically, the motion to reconsider must be made by one Delegate, and seconded by another, who voted in the majority; or, in case of equal division, by those who voted in the negative. In case of a vote by Orders, where there is a concurrence of both Orders, the motion shall be made by a Clerical member voting in the majority, or by a majority of the Lay Delegates from any parish voting in the majority; and, in case of a non-concurrence of Orders, the motion shall come from a Clerical member voting in the negative, or from a majority of a Delegation from a parish which gave the majority in the negative.

All motions to reconsider shall be made and be seconded on the day the vote is taken, or on the next succeeding day on which the Convention shall be in session.

COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE.

XXXII. Whenever so ordered by the vote of a majority of the members present, the Convention may go into Committee of the Whole for the consideration of any matter.

The President shall designate some member of the Convention to act as Chairman of the Committee of the Whole, which, while in session, shall be governed by these rules as adapted by the Chairman, subject to appeal to the Committee, and also to the following provisions:

(a) A motion to rise and to report to the Convention, with or without request for leave to sit again, may be made at any time, and shall take precedence of all other motions, and shall be decided without debate. No such motion once made shall be renewed until after further proceedings shall have been had in the Committee of the Whole.

(b) A motion that a vote upon any pending proposition shall be taken at some designated time, may be made and be disposed of without debate at any time; but, as before provided, a motion to report to the House shall take precedence.

No motion to lay on the table shall be entertained.

XXXIII. No debate shall be allowed in the Convention on any motion to permit the Committee of the Whole to sit again. Requests for such permission shall take precedence of all other business, and the motion therefor shall be put to vote immediately without reference.

GENERAL REGULATIONS.

XXXIV. When considering the election of a Bishop, the Convention shall sit with closed doors.

XXXV. No applause shall be permitted during any session of the Convention or of the Committee of the Whole.

XXXVI. The Bishops of this Church, Clergymen belonging to this Diocese but not entitled to seats in the Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in this Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

Seats upon the platform shall be occupied by officers of the Convention or their representatives, by Bishops, and by such other persons as by special vote of the Convention shall be so authorized.

XXXVII. Except when otherwise ordered by the Convention, no books, pamphlets, or other printed matter shall be distributed in the Convention, or be placed in the seats of the members, without the express permission of the President; but this prohibition shall not apply to the report of a Committee, or to any paper or other document presented to and accepted by the Convention or printed by its authority.

XXXVIII. By unanimous consent any action may be taken that is not in contravention of any provision of the Constitution or the Canons of the Church or of the Diocese.

XXXIX. Before the adjournment of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

XL. Whenever in the Rules of Order provision is made for action by the Bishop, such action, in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop, shall devolve upon the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, but if there be none or in case of the absence or disability of the Bishop Coadjutor, shall devolve upon the Suffragan Bishop, if there be one, or if there be more than one, shall devolve upon the senior in point of consecration, or in case of his absence or disability, shall devolve upon the other Suffragan Bishops in the order of their consecration, and shall devolve upon the Standing Committee or other authority or person in cases where provision is made for their action in the place of the Bishop, only in the event of the absence or disability of the Bishop or the Bishop Coadjutor, and the Suffragan Bishop or Bishops, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate.

XLI. Any rule of order may be suspended by the vote of not less than two-thirds of the members present. Any new matter introduced during such suspension may be explained by the mover in a statement of not more than five minutes, but otherwise shall not be subject to debate or action until after report from the appropriate committee. No rule of order shall be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

APPENDIX K

EXTRACTS FROM THE LAWS OF NEW YORK

RELATING TO

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES

CHAPTER LI OF THE CONSOLIDATED LAWS.

(As amended to date.)

The Religious Corporations Laws.

ARTICLE I. Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations Generally:

§ 12. SALE, MORTGAGE AND LEASE OF REAL PROPERTY OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of Article four of the general corporation law. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of such church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property, without the consent of the Bishop and standing committee of the Diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell any of its real property without the consent of the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to act, without the consent of the Vicar-General or Administrator of such Diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by Article four of the general corporation law to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plats, or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter in respect to a religious corporation of a specified denomination, any solvent religious corporation may, by order of the supreme court obtained as above provided in proceedings to sell, mortgage or lease real property, convey the whole or any part of its real property to another religious corporation, for a consideration of one dollar or other nominal consideration; and for the purpose of applying the provisions of Article four of the general corporation law, a proposed conveyance for such consideration shall be treated as a sale, but it shall not be necessary to show, in the petition or otherwise, nor for the court to find, that the pecuniary or proprietary interest of the grantor corporation will be promoted thereby; and the interests of such grantor shall be deemed to be promoted if it appears that religious or charitable objects generally are conserved by such conveyance; provided, however, that such an order shall not be made if tending to impair the claim or remedy of any creditor.

If a sale or mortgage of any real property of any such religious corporation has been heretofore or shall be hereafter made and a conveyance or mortgage executed and delivered without the authority of a court of competent jurisdiction, obtained as required by law, or not in accordance with its directions, the court may, thereafter, upon the application of the corporation, or of the grantee or mortgagee in any such conveyance or mortgage or of any person claiming through or under any such grantee or mortgagee, upon such notice to such corporation, or its successor, and such other person or persons as may be interested in such property, as the court may prescribe, confirm said previously executed conveyance or mortgage, and order and direct the execution and delivery of a confirmatory deed or mortgage, or the recording of such confirmatory order in the office where deeds and mortgages are recorded in the county in which the property is located; and upon compliance with the said order such original conveyance or mortgage shall be as valid and of the same force and effect as if it had been executed and delivered after due proceedings had in accordance with the statute and the direction of the court.

But no confirmatory order may be granted unless the consents required in the first part of this section for a Protestant Episcopal or Roman Catholic Church have first been given by the prescribed authority thereof, either upon the original application or upon the application for the confirmatory order. This act shall take effect immediately.

ARTICLE III. Special provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches:

- SECTION 40. The meeting for incorporation.
41. The certificate of incorporation.
42. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; power and duties thereof.
43. Annual Elections and special meetings of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.
44. Changing the number of vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal parishes hereafter incorporated.
45. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of vestrymen and terms of office of churchwardens in Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.
46. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen.

§ 40. THE MEETING FOR INCORPORATION.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first churchwardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating minister, or, if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of voters, and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be churchwardens thereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

§ 41. THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county, and the town, city or village, in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be, located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent; upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the churchwardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county, so specified therein, the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, when there is one, shall form a vestry, and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this chapter be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its government.

Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed also an incorporated parish.

§ 42. CORPORATE TRUSTEES; Vestry; powers and duties thereof.

No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he be incapable of acting by one of the churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient; provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either:

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens, and a majority of vestrymen; or,
2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of vestrymen; or,
3. If the rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector.

The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present.

At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election, at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

If vacancies exist in the offices of churchwardens or vestrymen in such number that a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees is not in office at any time, the rector shall forthwith call a special election for the filling of such vacancies. If there be no rector, the churchwarden longest in office shall call such special election. Notice of such special election shall be read by the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by one of the churchwardens, on the Sunday next preceding such election, in the time of divine service. If for any reason the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service on such Sunday, such notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for one week next preceding the election. Such notice shall conform to that required for an annual election. The provisions of section forty-three of this chapter, relating to annual election, shall apply to such special election, except as inconsistent herewith. Such vacancies shall be filled at such election for the remainder of the unexpired term.

The vestry may, subject to the canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

§ 43. ANNUAL ELECTIONS AND SPECIAL MEETINGS OF INCORPORATED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Special meetings of any Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore or hereafter incorporated may be held on any secular day fixed by the vestry.

Notice of such annual election or special meeting shall be read by the rector of the parish, or, if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by a churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election or special meeting, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election or special meeting.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election or special meeting. The notice of the annual election shall also specify the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The notice of a special meeting shall specify the matter or question to be brought before such meeting, and no matter or question not specified in such notice shall be acted on at such meeting.

The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall be the rector of the parish, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast. The presiding officer of such annual or special meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election or special meeting, or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election or special meeting. The action of an annual or special meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of an election shall continue open for one hour, and longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the term of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

§ 44. CHANGING THE NUMBER OF VESTRYMEN OF PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES HEREAFTER INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, or with the notice of such special meeting as the case may be, that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter; one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

§ 45. CHANGING DATE OF ANNUAL ELECTION, NUMBER AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF VESTRYMEN AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF CHURCHWARDENS IN PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES HERETOFORE INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six, nine, twelve, fifteen, eighteen, twenty-one or twenty-four, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, or in the notice of a special meeting to be held not less than six months before the time fixed for holding the next annual election thereafter, and be submitted to such annual or special meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of the annual election, or with the notice of the special meeting as the case may be; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determine to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on at such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden. Any Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, which has changed the number of its vestrymen and the manner of electing wardens and vestrymen pursuant to the provisions of this section, may make further change in the number of its vestrymen in the manner provided in section forty-four of the act (Laws 1906, ch. 525).

§ 46. CHANGING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS AND THE QUALIFICATIONS OF WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirements of section forty-three of this chapter, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.
